LOURDES

Perinatal SBAR

A 30-60 Second Report

Before Calling The Physician Or CNM

1. Assess the patient.
2. Read most recent notes.
3. Have the chart in-hand.

SBAR Report	Obstetric Patients	Newborn/Pediatric Patients	Anesthesia Patients

Situation	• Identify yourself and where you are calling from
	• Patient's name and reason for report
	• Patient was admitted for:_____
	• I am concerned about:
	  ○ FHR
	  ○ Contraction Pattern
	  ○ Blood Pressure (give examples)
	  ○ Vaginal Bleeding, etc.
		• Identify yourself and where you are calling from
		• Baby Boy or Girl _____ and reason for report:
		  ○ Oxyhood use, icterus, etc.
		• I am concerned about:
		  ○ Respirations, SaO2,
		  ○ Temperature
		  ○ Blood Sugar
			GOAL: Anesthesiologist and Obstetrician/CNM conversation
			All Red Cesarean Sections, Use "911" prefix for pagers
			• Identify yourself and where you are calling from
			• "I'm calling for Dr._____ for a []Red []Yellow []Green C/S []Epidural _____"

Background	• Gravida___ Para___ @___ weeks gestation • OB or CNM attending _____ • Significant medical and obstetrical history includes:_____ • Problems with current pregnancy are_____ • Relate the complaints by the patient and the pain level	• Baby born via []C/S (give reason for____) []NSVD []Forceps []Vacuum Extractor • Apgar Score, any resuscitative measures • GBS Status and treatment prior to birth • Significant maternal history • Relate the physical assessment pertinent to the problem, especially any changes	• Gravida__ Para__ @__ weeks gest. • Reason for C/S:_____ • Significant medical and obstetrical history includes _____ • NPO Status • Does patient currently have a labor epidural?

Assessment	• Maternal Vital Signs
	• FH=Variability, Baseline, Accelerations, Decelerations, Contraction Pattern
	  NICHD Language: see back of form.
	• Significant Lab Values
	• Intrauterine Resuscitative Measures
	• Give your conclusions about the present situation. Words like "might be" or "could be" are helpful.
		• Vital Signs are:
		  ○ Respiratory status, presences of grunting, flaring, retractions?
		  ○ TPR, SaO2
		  ○ Blood glucose levels, feedings
		  ○ Significant Lab Values
		• Give your conclusions about the present situation. Words like "might be" or "could be" are helpful.
		• Clinical Impressions, Concerns
			• Vital Signs are:
			  ○ Maternal issues
			  ○ Fetal issues
			• Contraction Pattern, VE, Current labor status
			• Significant Lab Values
			• Current status in preparation for OR

Recommendation	• What I need from you is_____
	• Be specific about a time frame
	• Suggestions for tests/treatments:
	  ○ Liver Function Studies, CMP, UA, Pitocin, Methergine, Magnesium Level, Coagulation Profile, KB, Antibiotics, Brethine, etc.
	• Clarify orders, vital sign frequency, under what circumstances to call back,
		• What I need from you is_____
		• Be specific about a time frame
		• Suggestions for tests/treatments:
		  ○ IV, Antibiotics, Chest Xray, CBC, cBG's, ABG's, NPO if significant resuscitative efforts, etc.
		• Clarify orders, vital sign frequency, under what circumstances to call back,
			• What time can we be ready for you?

ASCENSION HEALTH