PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Welcome to 60 Day Revolution! Below we will show you the break down of each "Day".

JUMP START

Directions: Perform the "Jump Start" warmup as a circuit before all workouts.

UPPER BODY DAY

Perform three trisets, choosing from the exercise list provided. Make sure to refer to the chart to see how set and rep ranges in each phase.

LOWER BODY DAY

Here you are performing 2 Supersets with a Straight Set or regular set that does not include a superset. Make sure to refer to the chart to see how the set and rep ranges change.

CONDITIONING DAY

60 Day Revolution is designed to accommodate you even if you may have limited equipment or places to workout. So, on your conditioning days, we give you 3 options to complete your conditioning. Working out: indoor, outdoor or a rowing machine. This is also designed so you can have a different workout every time!

ACTIVE REST DAY

If you have a lot of fat to lose, bump it up to 2 conditioning days per week. Note that Week 7 conditioning is 30 minutes of steady-state cardio at moderate intensity. There is no conditioning workout in Week 8, though you can perform Week 7's steady-state cardio session if desired.

FULL BODY DAY

Here you are performing 2 Supersets plus 1 of 3 Finishers. Make sure to refer back to the chart given to you to see how the set and rep ranges change every week in each phase.

CHALLENGE DAY

Share your results on social media to compare times and scores with the hashtag #60DayChallenge.

REST DAY

Recovery is key, this is your rest day.

PLEASE NOTE: All readers are advised to consult their physician before beginning any exercise and nutrition program. BPI and the contributors do not accept any responsibility for injury sustained as a result of following the advice or suggestions contained within the content of this program.

UPPER BODY DAY

REP GUIDELINES FOR UPPER BODY: There are a wide variety of sets and reps used for each phase of the 60 Day Revolution. On Upper Body Day, there are different set and rep schemes for each triset. Refer to the chart below during each week of the program. All sets and reps are expressed as sets x reps. For instance, on Week 1 (Intro) on Triset # 1, you'll do 3 x 10, or 3 sets of 10 reps. In Week 8 (Shock) on the same triset, you'll do 7-10 sets of 1 rep. Use the heaviest weights you can manage with good form during all weeks, except for Week 7; this is a DELOAD and meant as a break before you hit Week 8, the SHOCK phase where you'll use the heaviest possible weights that you can lift.

JUMP START: Perform the following warmup as a circuit before all workouts.

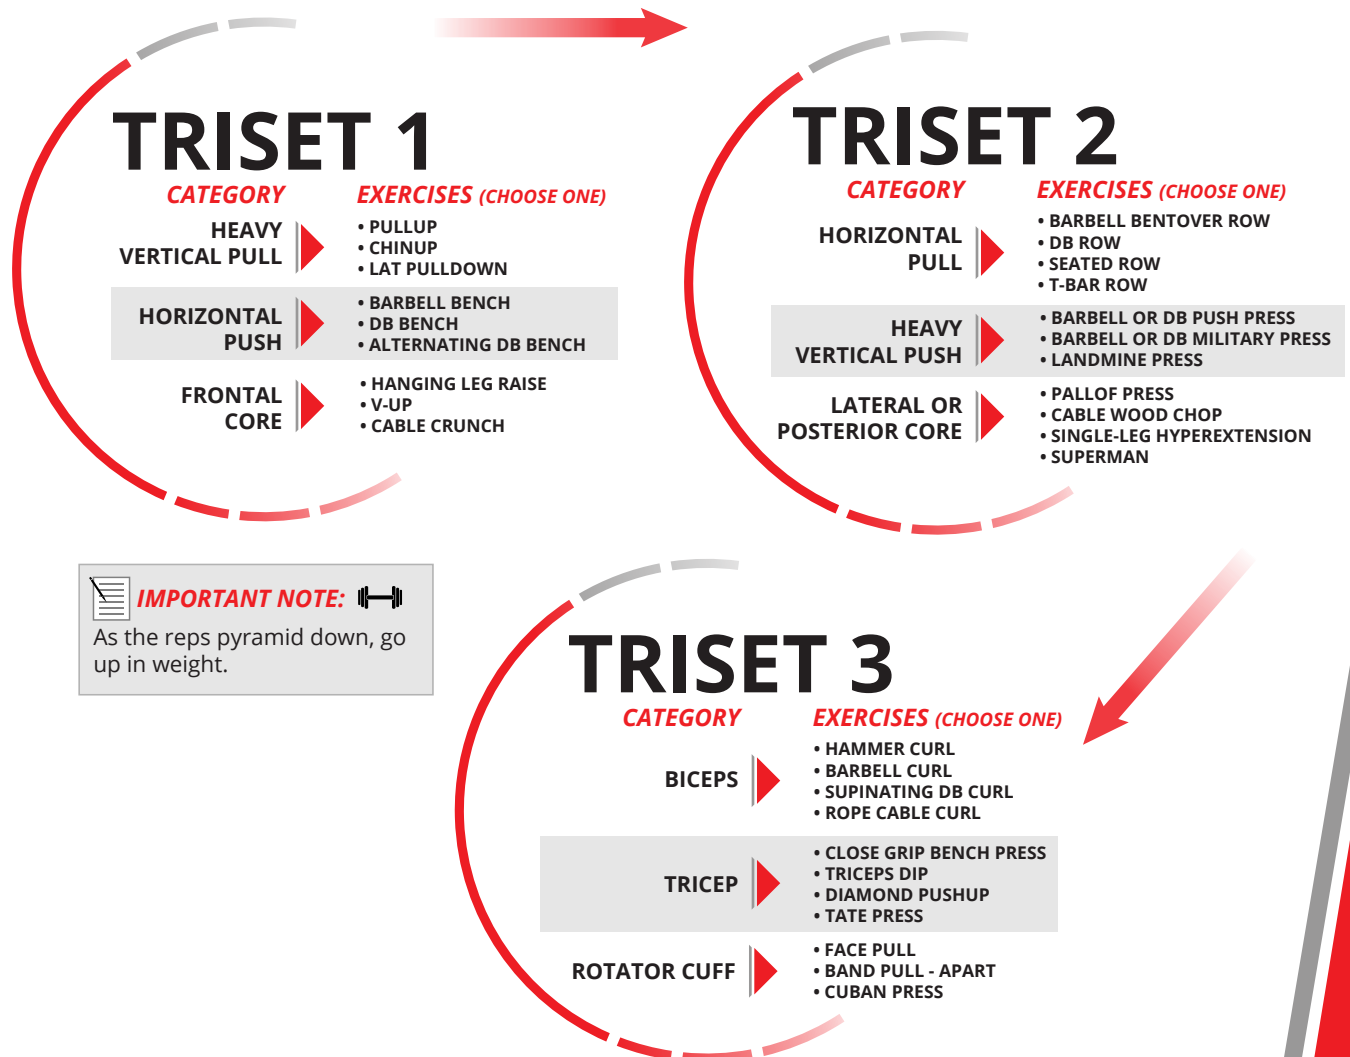

EXERCISE	REPS
Shoulder Mobility*	10
Side Bend	10 each side
Trunk Rotation	10 each side
Yoga Pushup	10
Band Pull-apart	10

PHASES	TRISSET 1	TRISSET 2	TRISSET 3
1 INTRO	3 x 10	3 x 10	4 x 8-12
2 BASE	4 x 8	4 x 10, 8, 6, 4 ↔	4 x 8-12
3 OVERLOAD	4 x 10, 8, 6, 4 ↔	4 x 8	4 x 8-12
4 OVERLOAD	5 x 5	4 x 10, 8, 6, 4 ↔	4 x 8-12
5 OVERLOAD	6 x 3	5 x 5	4 x 8-12
6 OVERLOAD	6 x 10, 8, 6, 4, 4, 3 ↔	6 x 3	4 x 8-12
7 DELOAD	4 x 6-10	4 x 6-10	4 x 8-12
8 SHOCK	7-10 x 1	7-10 x 1	4 x 8-12

* You can use arm circles, face pulls, or the shoulder mobility exercise of your choice.

 Perform a normal pushup, then in the top position form a pike with your hips; your body will form a triangle with the ground; keep your back flat and legs straight.

DIRECTIONS: Each workout consists of three trisets. Don't rest between exercises within the triset, and rest only 90-120 seconds at the end of each triset. In each category, choose one exercise for each workout day and stick with it for that day; you can change it in subsequent workouts. Get creative with your combinations. For instance, don't just triset the first move in each category: pullups, barbell bench, and hanging leg raises. Try combining pullups with alternating dumbbell bench, and V-ups, then shake up the rotation for something totally different the next week. The other major variable is the number of sets and reps done in each phase of the program.

IMPORTANT NOTE: As the reps pyramid down, go up in weight.

LOWER BODY DAY

REP GUIDELINES FOR LOWER BODY: Refer to the chart below during each week of the program. All sets and reps are expressed as sets x reps. Use the heaviest weights you can manage with good form during all weeks, except for Week 7; this is a deload and meant as a break before you hit Week 8, the shock phase where you'll use the heaviest possible weights that you can lift.

JUMP START: Perform the following warmup as a circuit before all workouts.

EXERCISE	REPS
Shoulder Mobility*	10
Side Bend	10 each side
Trunk Rotation	10 each side

PHASES	SUPERSET 1	SUPERSET 2	HIP HINGE
1 INTRO	3 x 10	3 x 10	3 x 10
2 BASE	4 x 8	4 x 6	3 x 10, 8, 6 ↔
3 OVERLOAD	4 x 5	4 x 8	3 x 10
4 OVERLOAD	5 x 5	4 x 10, 8, 6, 4 ↔	3 x 10, 8, 6 ↔
5 OVERLOAD	4 x 3	4 x 5	3 x 8
6 OVERLOAD	5 x 8, 6, 4, 4, 3 ↔	4 x 6	3 x 10
7 DELOAD	3 x 6	3 x 6	3 x 6
8 SHOCK	5 x 2	5 x 3	4 x 3

IMPORTANT NOTE: ↔ As the reps pyramid down, go up in weight.

DIRECTIONS: Each workout consists of two supersets and a single lift (a hip hinge) performed in straight sets. Make sure to rest between supersets for about 90-120 seconds. Where you have exercises to choose from, pick one exercise for that particular day and stick with it; choose a different exercise the following week.

NUTRITION OVERVIEW

While calories are certainly an important part of the M&F Food Pyramid, it is the quality of those calories that can make or break a physique. I.e, 500 calories from steak and 500 calories from ice cream are NOT the same. By eating your macronutrients—protein, carbs, and fat—in the right amounts, you can train harder, recover faster, and avoid unwanted fat gain.

MUSCLE GAIN 14-18 CALORIES X POUND FAT LOSS 10-12 CALORIES X POUND

PROTEIN

Protein provides the amino acids needed to repair and grow muscle tissue. It also has the benefit of keeping you fuller for longer, which means you're less likely to rummage through that box of candy left over from the holidays. A beginner can really benefit from increasing protein intake to at least one gram per pound of body weight per day.

CARBS

Carbs are actually your body's preferred source of fuel. Cutting carbs in an effort to quickly shed weight can actually reduce the quality of your workouts and can compromise your body's ability to create and hold on to muscle. You need carbs for energy. Yes, eaten to excess, carbs can cause weight gain, but you'd do better to watch your overall calorie intake, as it's excess calories in general that lead to fat storage. A healthier relationship with carbs entails eating (primarily) unprocessed sources from potatoes, sweet potatoes, rice, fruits, and vegetables.

FAT

You've got to eat it to lose it. Seriously. Multiple studies have shown that consumption of healthy fats can actually lead to greater fat loss and improve protein synthesis while also protecting your heart and brain. Taking in 0.4 grams of fat per pound of body weight per day from healthy sources such as fish, olive oil, avocados, nuts, and seeds is essential for overall health and athletic performance.

FOOD PYRAMID

You should manipulate your consumption of these macronutrients to meet particular caloric targets based on your overall goals. Those looking to gain muscle, will need more calories and more carbs. Lower (not low) carb and calorie counts are standard for those more concerned with dropping weight or leaning out.

Use the Food Pyramid as a starting point for your daily macronutrient breakdown and caloric requirements, then adjust up or down incrementally until you find what works best for you.

NUTRITION SAMPLE PLANS

What you put in your body has a drastic impact on the way you look, feel, and lift. Whether you're a beginner or an advanced lifter, your food intake will be the greatest determining factor in the degree of change you are able to achieve. Here are two sample meal plans for two different goals: muscle gain and fat loss.

Below examples are two sample meal plans for muscle gain and fat loss. To truly gain quality lean muscle mass, you need a balanced diet both high in carbs and calories. A balanced diet will help you achieve either goal.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

This is an example meal plan and breakdown of the healthy foods you can eat for a 180-190 pound guy. Use the M&F Food Pyramid (www.muscleanfitness.com/pyramid) to develop your own meal plan.
