III. SPECIFIC REASON(S) FOR COUNSELING
Foreign Language Skill Proficiency Bonus (FL SPB)--ARMS-AFROTC-09-122, effective for classes beginning Fall 2009 (not retroactive).  Eligibility: The SPB is authorized for contracted (to include AS700/800) cadets in good standing. Cadets in special student status are not authorized to receive SPB. The bonus will be IN ADDITION to AFROTC stipend. Cadets are entitled to the bonus under 2 circumstances:  a. Successfully completed full-time, college-level, in-residence foreign language, labs, and cultural studies courses. b. Successfully completed an approved study abroad or language/cultural immersion program in a language, or country that speaks a language that appears in Attachment 1 of the ARMS message. Examples of such programs include university-sponsored programs that award academic credit to the cadet upon completion, and AFROTC-sponsored Professional Development Training (PDT) immersion
IV. MANDATORY COUNSELING FOR GMC CADETS (Upon program entry and every fall term)					YES	NO
1. MEMBERSHIP REQUIREMENTS. Has cadet been made aware:
a. That GMC membership does not guarantee later admission into a scholarship program or POC.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. That they must attain a grade of "C-" or better in all AS classes and Leadership Laboratory in order to qualify for the POC.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. All involvements must be reported within 72 hours or by the start of institutional classes for which they were cited or charged (a formal written citation need not have been issued) by civil, military, or school authorities regardless of disposition or seeming insignificance.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
d. Of the United States Air Force drug abuse policy according to AFOATSI 36-2011.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
e. That if enrolled at a 2-year institution under a crosstown agreement or consortium arrangement, they must later transfer to an accredited baccalaureate degree program offering AFROTC in order to enter the POC or maintain their present scholarship entitlements.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
f. That future duty with the Air Force may involve being associated with nuclear weapons, combat duty and remote or isolated duty regardless of marital or dependent status.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
g. That GMC scholarship cadets incur an active duty service commitment (to include payback of scholarship benefits received during their AS 100 year) after attending the first AS 200 class or Leadership Laboratory session.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
h. That registration under the Selective Service Act for male students 18 years of age or older is mandatory for GMC membership.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
i. That they must attend either a standard or an extended field training encampment prior to POC entrance unless otherwise directed.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
j. That participation in any organization or society not sponsored by AFROTC is in their private student capacity. Participants must understand that these organizations have no affiliation with AFROTC.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
k. That professional conduct (on and off duty) are essential to successful mission accomplishment.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
2. GMC RETENTION STANDARDS. Nonscholarship GMC members must maintain the retention standards in order to be eligible for POC entry. Has cadet been counseled that:
a. They must maintain the required standards of body fat, appearance, decorum, discipline, and military performance.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. If discontinued from GMC membership, they may continue enrollment as a special student.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. If they are at a school with a mandatory GMC program and fail to maintain retention standards, they may be placed in special student status (unless the institution policy requires they remain in cadet status).					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
d. If a physical has been administered and qualified/certified, they must immediately report any changes in medical status.					<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

V. MANDATORY COUNSELING REQUIREMENTS FOR CSP/POC CADETS DURING TERM REVIEWS			YES	NO
3. ACADEMIC RETENTION STANDARDS. Is cadet:
a. Maintaining a minimum term and cumulative GPA as indicated by the school in which they are attending (CSP requirements are found in AFOATSI 36-2019).			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. Maintaining full time student status (as determined by school catalog).			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. Maintaining, at a minimum a grade of "C-" or better in all AS classes and leadership laboratory.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
4. MILITARY RETENTION STANDARDS. Has the cadet been counseled that they are not maintaining military retention standards if they:
a. Have adverse involvements with civil, military, or school authorities (reminder of 72-hour rule).			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
b. Use illegal drugs, hemp derivative, or display chronic alcohol abuse.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
c. Possess undesirable character traits which interfere with effectiveness and performance as an officer candidate.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
d. Fail weight (body fat) and physical fitness standards.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
e. Display inaptitude, to include failure to attain the level of maturity and judgement expected of an officer candidate.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
f. Fail to comply with AFROTC dependency policy.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
g. Display unacceptable adjustment to the military environment.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
h. Fail to compete favorably with other applicants for an enrollment allocation in the POC.			<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
5. MEDICAL STANDARDS. Has cadet been counseled to report any changes in medical status immediately. Additionally, counsel the cadet that placement in medical recheck status will render them ineligible to enlist or commission until medically cleared by AETC/SG
VI. COUNSELOR'S COMMENTS (For additional comments use separate sheet)  Bonus is based on language, course level, and credit hours earned in accordance with Attachment 2, Tables 1A & 1B. Maximum payment in an academic year (1 Aug to 31 Jul) is $3K. The SPB will be paid retroactively, after the cadet provides a university transcript proving successful completion of course. Successful completion is defined as achieving a grade of "C" (2.0) or better in the course. Cadets will not receive payment if they withdraw from the class. Cadets will not receive a bonus if an "I" (Incomplete) is received for the class and the grade is not resolved by the end of the next academic term, or the cadet receives a failing grade. Cadets can only receive SPB for one course or program at a time. If two foreign languages are taken at the same time, the cadet will only receive the higher bonus value. Cadets who receive the SPB are required to sign a written agreement, Attachment 3, which outlines the terms under which the SPB will be administered NLT 10 days after the course date. Cadets under the legal age will require a legal guardian signature. If the form is not signed in the presence of detachment personnel, it must be notarized.
