General InformationA Purpose

Use form FTB 3725, Assets Transferred from Parent Corporation to Insurance Company Subsidiary, to track the assets transferred from a parent corporation to an insurance company subsidiary. In addition, use this form to figure capital gains (losses) if the parent corporation transferred assets to an insurance company subsidiary beginning on or after June 23 2004.

California Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) Section 24465 provides that when a parent corporation transfers appreciated property to an insurance company subsidiary, the gain is deferred if the property transferred to the insurer is used in the active conduct of a trade or business of the insurer. The gain must be recognized as income if any of the following apply:

- The transferred property is no longer owned by an insurer in the taxpayer's commonly controlled group (or a member of the taxpayer's combined reporting group).
- The property is no longer used in the active conduct of the insurer's trade or business (or the trade or business of another member in the taxpayer's combined reporting group).
- The holder of the property is no longer held by an insurer in the commonly controlled group of the transferor (or a member of the taxpayer's combined reporting group).

R&TC Section 24465 applies to transactions entered into on or after June 23, 2004.

B Definitions

1. Appreciated property – Appreciated property means property whose fair market value (FMV), as of the date of the transfer, exceeds its adjusted basis as of that date.
2. Commonly controlled group – Commonly controlled group exists when stock possessing more than 50% of the voting power is owned, or constructively owned, by a common parent corporation (or chains of corporations connected through the common parent) or by members of the same family, see R&TC Section 25105. Also, a commonly controlled group includes corporations that are stapled entities, see R&TC Section 25105(b)(3). Special rules are provided in R&TC Section 25105 for partnerships, trusts, and transfers of voting power by proxy, voting trust, written shareholder agreement, etc.
