ATOMET OR PARTY WITHOUT ATTORIETY (Name, Sible Six number), stat address; EARM, ADDRESS ATTORIETY FOR Variety SEMENT ADDRESS ATTORIETY FOR Variety PETITIONER: RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENTIPARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE		1 L-140
SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF NUMBER AND ACKNOWN AC	ATTORNEY OR PARTY WITHOUT ATTORNEY (Name, State Bar number, and address):
SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF NUMBER AND ACKNOWN AC
AIDORANCY FOR JUMPS STREET ADDRESS MANUAL ADDRESS M
SUPERIOR COURT OF CALIFORNIA, COUNTY OF SITEMET ADDRESS GOTH MAIN PROCESS GOTH AS INSPECTAGE PATITIONER: RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner's Preliminary Respondent's Preliminary Respondent's Final DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-10). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default Judgment case that is not a stigulated judgment or a judgment based on a markal settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required (see Family Code section 2109). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to wake final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 filing the Petition The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(fl)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Jicome and Expense Declaration of f
INTELER ADDRESS CITY AND JPP CODE PETITIONER: RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner's Pretiminary Petitioner's Pretiminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court, Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution information (from FL-181). Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution information (from FL-181). Instead a declaration stating that service of disclosure and preliminary declarations of disclosure must exchange preliminary declarations of disclosure must be earlied in the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)).
CASE NUMBER. PETITIONER: RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner's Preliminary Respondent's Final DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS of DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waiver must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic pather must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (from FL-161). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109.) In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to vaive final declarations of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondert must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Responses or which the Response. The time periods may be ext	· ·
PETITIONER: RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner's Preliminary Respondent's Preliminary Respondent's Preliminary Respondent's Preliminary Respondent's Preliminary Respondent's Preliminary In a dissolution, legal separation, or nultify action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with cretaria exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment ase after in a stimulate settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of alicolosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure and the waited by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: Community and Quasi-Community Property Pacetaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-160). All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosu
PETITIONER: RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE
RESPONDENT: OTHER PARENT/PARTY: DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner's Preliminary Respondent's Final DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullify action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filled with the court. (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(fl)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information reg	PETITIONER:
DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE Petitioner's Preliminary Respondent's Final
Petitioner's Preliminary Respondent's Final DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullify action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a mantal settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure, is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(ft)). Attached are the following: Attached are the following: Active of preliminary declaration (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): A completed Schedule of Assets and Information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). A statement of
Petitioner's Final DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullify action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or vaived must be filed with the court. (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. A statement of all material facts and information regarding o	DECLARATION OF DISCLOSURE	CASE NUMBER:
DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(ft)). Attached are the following: A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). A statement of all material facts and informatio
DO NOT FILE DECLARATIONS OF DISCLOSURE OR FINANCIAL ATTACHMENTS WITH THE COURT In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2110). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 1 declare under penalty of p
In a dissolution, legal separation, or nullity action, both a preliminary and a final declaration of disclosure must be served on the other party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court. (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 5. A a statement	Trespondente party with certain exceptions. Neither disclosure is filed with the court. Instead, a declaration stating that service of disclosure documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment or a judgment based on a marial settement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition For respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of sep documents was completed or waived must be filed with the court (see form FL-141). In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Is Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(ff)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A a statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or
In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange preliminary disclosures as described in Summary Dissolution Information (form FL-810). Final disclosures are not required (see Family Code section 2109). In a default judgment case that is not a stipulated judgment or a judgment based on a marital settlement agreement, only the petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(ft)). Attached are the following: A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form).		on stating that service of disclosure petitioner is required to complete and serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure. A final disclosure is not required of either party (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a	In summary dissolution cases, each spouse or domestic partner must exchange prelin (see Family Code section 2110). Service of preliminary declarations of disclosure may not be waived by an agreement between the parties. Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form).
Parties who agree to waive final declarations of disclosure must file their written agreement with the court (see form FL-144). The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(ft)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form).	(see Family Code section 2110).
The petitioner must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Petition or within 60 days of filing the Petition. The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(f)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date: (TYPE OR PRINT NAME)
The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the Response or within 60 days of filing the Response. The time periods may be extended by written agreement of the parties or by court order (see Family Code section 2104(ft)). Attached are the following: 1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date:	-	,
1. A completed Schedule of Assets and Debts (form FL-142) or A Property Declaration (form FL-160) for (specify): Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date: SIGNATURE	The respondent must serve a preliminary declaration of disclosure at the same time as the	Response or within 60 days of filing the Community and Quasi-Community Property Separate Property. 2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150). 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form) . 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form) . 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form) . I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date:
 3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents. 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. 	1
 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date: 	2. A completed Income and Expense Declaration (form FL-150).
 4. A statement of all material facts and information regarding valuation of all assets that are community property or in which the community has an interest (not a form). 5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). 6. An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date: 	3. All tax returns filed by the party in the two years before the date that the party served the disclosure documents.
 community has an interest (not a form). A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form). An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct.
An accurate and complete written disclosure of any investment opportunity, business opportunity, or other income-producing opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date: SIGNATURE opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income- producing opportunity from the date of marriage to the date of separation (not a form). I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of California that the foregoing is true and correct. Date: SIGNATURE SIGNATURE	5. A statement of all material facts and information regarding obligations for which the community is liable (not a form).
Date: (TYPE OR PRINT NAME) SIGNATURE	opportunity presented since the date of separation that results from any investment, significant business, or other income-
(11) = 0111111111111111111111111111111111
(11) = 0111111111111111111111111111111111	(TYDE OR DRINT NAME)	SIGNATURE
	(TITE ON FINITINAMIE)

Form Adopted for Mandatory Use Judicial Council of California FL-140 [Rev. July 1, 2013]