Warnings to the Restrained Person

If you do not obey these orders, you can be arrested and charged with a crime. And you may have to go to jail or prison, pay a fine of up to $1,000, or both. Taking or hiding a child in violation of this order is subject to state and federal criminal penalties.

You cannot have guns, firearms, or ammunition. If box 5a is checked, the court issued a temporary restraining order, which means you cannot own, have, possess, buy or try to buy, receive or try to receive, or otherwise get guns, other firearms, or ammunition while the order is in effect. If you do, you can go to jail and pay a $1,000 fine. You must sell to a licensed gun dealer or turn in to a law enforcement agency any guns or other firearms that you have or control. The judge will ask you for proof that you did so. If you do not obey this order, you can be charged with a crime. Federal law says you cannot have guns or ammunition while the order is in effect.

Service of order by mail. If the judge makes a restraining order at the hearing, which has the same orders as in this form, you will get a copy of that order by mail at your last known address, which is written in item 2. If this address is not correct, or to find out if the orders were made permanent, contact the court.

Instruction for Law Enforcement

Applicable only if box 5a is checked.

Enforcing the restraining order. This order is effective when made. It is enforceable in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories and shall be enforced as if it were an order of that jurisdiction by any law enforcement agency that has received the order, is shown a copy of the order, or has verified its existence on the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS). If proof of service on the restrained person has not been received and the restrained person was not present at the court hearing, the law enforcement agency shall advise the restrained person of the terms of the order and then shall enforce it.

Conflicting orders. If a criminal protective order (form CR-160) conflicts with a juvenile restraining order (form JV-250), a law enforcement agency must enforce the criminal order. Even if the criminal order is older, the officer must still enforce it over the juvenile order. (Pen. Code, § 136.2.) Any nonconflicting terms of the juvenile custody or visitation order remain in full force. An emergency protective order (form EPO-001) that is in effect between the same parties and that is more restrictive than other restraining orders takes precedence over all other restraining orders. (Pen. Code, § 136.2.)

Certificate of Compliance With VAWA for Temporary Orders

This temporary protective order meets all full faith and credit requirements of the Violence Against Women Act (18 U.S.C. § 2265) (VAWA) upon notice of the restrained person. This court has jurisdiction over the parties and the subject matter; the restrained person has been or will be afforded notice and a timely opportunity to be heard as provided by the laws of this jurisdiction. This order is valid and entitled to enforcement in all jurisdictions throughout the 50 United States, the District of Columbia, all tribal lands, and all U.S. territories, commonwealths, and possessions and shall be enforced as if it were an order of those jurisdictions.
