

VERIFIED MOTION FOR CONTEMPT REGARDING PARENTING TIME (VISITATION) General Instructions

PLEASE READ FIRST: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a Court document, you may be helping or hurting your case. Before you sign any Court document or get involved with a Court case, it is important that you see a lawyer to make sure you are doing the right thing. Although there are risks in self-representation, should you choose to represent yourself you must be prepared. Although these forms have been prepared to help you represent yourself, you should know that certain Courts have their own procedures and may not accept every form. You may represent yourself in court, but you will have to abide by the appropriate court rules, Indiana Rules of Evidence, Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, and any local rules. For additional information, you may refer to the Indiana Self-Service Legal Center which can be found at www.in.gov/judiciary/selfservice/index.html. For legal advice about your case, you should contact a lawyer.

Please keep in mind that the term “Parenting Time” has replaced the term “Visitation” in Indiana Child Custody Law. You can find a copy of the new Parenting Time Guidelines at <http://www.state.in.us/judiciary/research/Ord-vis2.pdf>.

Step 1: Who should use this packet

You should use these forms if:

1. You have a Court order giving you Parenting Time (Visitation) rights over your child(ren),
2. The custodial parent has violated your Parenting Time (Visitation) rights, and
3. You would like the Court to hold the other party in contempt for violating your Parenting Time (Visitation) rights.

Step 2: What this packet contains

This packet contains forms for you to fill out and take to the Court. There are three forms in this packet. This packet also contains instructions.

Step 3: Which forms to fill out

You must fill out all three forms.

1. Appearance form
2. Verified Motion for Contempt Regarding Parenting Time (Visitation)
3. Order to Appear and Notice of Hearing

Step 4: How to File These Forms

1. Follow the instructions attached to each form to fill it out. You will need to look at a copy of your Court Parenting Time (Visitation) Order to answer questions on these forms. You will need to type or print neatly in black ink. Do not write on the back or sides of the forms, write only in the blanks provided.
2. Before filing these forms, check with your local Clerk to find out the number of copies you must provide and to find out the Clerk procedure for advising the other party of the hearing date.

3. Prepare the required number of copies of the forms that you have filled out.
4. Take the forms and copies to the Clerk in the Court where the action was originally filed. The Clerk will file stamp the forms, keep the originals and necessary copies, and hand back the rest of the copies to you.
5. Leave two stamped envelopes with the Clerk, one with your address and one with the other side's address, for mailing the Notice of Hearing. This will tell you when your court date is scheduled.
6. Mail one stamped copy of each form that you filed to the opposing attorney, or the opposing party if the opposing party is not represented by an attorney.
7. You must comply with your local court rules with regard to service of process. The Notice of Hearing form found in this packet might not satisfy your local rules. For example, you might have to fill out a summons to serve the other side.
8. Please be aware that any protective orders or restraining orders remain in effect throughout this process.
9. We suggest that you review Indiana Custody and Parenting Time (Visitation) Rights in Family Law, Title 31, Article 17 of the Indiana Code to prepare yourself for court. This can be located at <http://www.in.gov/legislative/ic/code/title31/ar17/>.
