INSTRUCTIONS

The explanatory material below should help you determine if you qualify for exemption from State income tax withholding under this test. If you are unsure of your particular State law provisions for exemption from withholding, you should write your State taxing authority.

Residents of applicable states who enter military service and are assigned to duty outside those States do not change residence because of such assignments. They remain residents of those States for tax purposes unless they fulfill all three of the following conditions:

1. They maintain no place of abode in their State of legal residence during the taxable year,
2. They do maintain a place of abode outside that State for the entire taxable year, and
3. They spend no more than 30 days in that State during the taxable year.

The following are not considered places of abode under condition 2:

a. An abode maintained while on temporary duty or while attending a specialized training school away from your permanent duty station. A member who is otherwise considered to maintain a place of abode outside his or her State of legal residence does not lose the place of abode solely because of performance of duty at another location if such place of abode is still maintained by the member.

b. Quarters occupied by a barracks, on shipboard, or in bachelor officer quarters at your permanent duty station. This restriction applies only to New Jersey and New York residents. If your status under condition 2 is unclear, you should consult your legal assistance officer before completing the form.

If the spouse and family of a married individual in military service continue to reside in the State of legal residence, their abode is considered to be an abode maintained by the service member. Condition 1 would therefore not be met.

Effective date of exemption election. Withholding of State income tax will stop the month after the month in which the certificate is filed. Retroactive adjustments will not be made.
