ROUTINE USE(S): None.

determined by law.

DISCLOSURE: Voluntary; however, failure to provide requested information may result in an incorrect election and/or delayed payment of survivor benefits in the event of the member's death.

INSTRUCTIONS

The decision you make regarding participation in the Reserve Component Survivor Benefit Plan (RCSBP) is very important.

A decision to participate, that is to select either Option B or C, is permanent and cannot be changed unless authorized by law, such as the opportunity to terminate your participation during the period that is between your 62nd birthday and the day before you reach age 63 at which time you may elect to discontinue participation. A decision to decline RCSBP coverage means you will not have another opportunity to select SBP coverage until age 60. In the event you decline RCSBP coverage and die prior to your 60th birthday, no survivor benefits will be paid. Please review the program details carefully and consider the effects of your decision before making an election. You must submit this form within the 90-day period after being notified of eligibility for retired pay at age 60. If you do not submit this form as required, your election, if any, will be

SECTION V - LEVEL OF COVERAGE
14. Select the monthly amount of retired pay you wish to have the survivor annuity based on. NOTE: You cannot decrease the level existing coverage. Your covered spouse beneficiary will receive an annuity that will pay 55 percent of the level of coverage until and will pay between 45 to 50 percent during the phase-out of the two-tier method (October 2005 - March 2008). Effective April 1 2008, the annuity regardless of age will be 55 percent of the level of coverage selected. The annuity paid to a child or children to 55 percent (divided in equal shares). Children annuities are payable to children who are: under age 18; or under age 22 if full tin unmarried students; or any age if disabled and incapable of self-support before 18 (or 22, if while a full-time student). An insurable interest annuity is 55 percent of the difference between retired pay and the premium for coverage. Insurable interest annuities re 55 percent regardless of age.
