APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS/WORKSHEET (Continued)

Calculate Hours of Sexual Assault Advocacy Experience

In addition to DoD experience, you may count civilian or non-DoD experience towards your total hours, given that the experience was providing sexual assault victim advocacy services.

For full-time advocacy experience: Take the number of hours each week worked as a sexual assault victim advocate and multiply by 52 (weeks in a year) to calculate hours per year. Multiply that number by number of years served as a full time sexual assault victim advocate. If you served for less than one year, multiply by the number of weeks you served as a full-time sexual assault victim advocate.

Example: (40 hours per week) x (52 weeks) = 2,080 hours. (2,080 hours) x (5 years) = 10,400 hours.

For part-time advocacy experience: Take the number of hours providing sexual assault victim advocacy each week and multiply by 52 (weeks in a year) to calculate hours per year. Multiply that number by number of years served as part-time SARC/SAPR VA. If you served for less than one year, multiply by the number of weeks you served as a part-time SARC or SAPR VA by the number of hours per week.

Example: (8 hours per week) x (52 weeks) = 416 hours. (416 hours) x (2 years) = 832 hours.

- or -

For part-time advocacy experience: Take the number of times on call per year and multiply by average number of hours providing sexual assault victim advocacy per shift. Multiply that number by number of years served as a part-time SARC/SAPR VA.

Example: (30 times on call in a year) x (5 average number of hours providing victim advocacy per shift) = 150 hours.
(150 hours) x (3 years) = 450 hours.

Determine the Level to which you should apply:

- I have between 0 and 3,900 hours experience providing sexual assault victim advocacy services. Apply for renewal at a Level I.
- I have between 3,900 and 7,800 hours experience providing sexual assault victim advocacy services. I have also provided sexual assault victim advocacy services on three or more occasions in the past two years. Apply for renewal at a Level II.
- I have between 7,800 and 15,600 hours experience providing sexual assault victim advocacy services. I have also provided sexual assault victim advocacy services on three or more occasions in the past two years. Apply for renewal at a Level III.
- I have more than 15,600 hours experience providing sexual assault victim advocacy services. I have also provided sexual assault victim advocacy services on three or more occasions in the past two years. Apply for renewal at a Level IV.
- I have more than 3,900 hours experience providing sexual assault victim advocacy services, but have not provided sexual assault victim advocacy services on three or more occasions in the past two years. Apply for renewal at a Level I.

Verify and Evaluate Experience for Levels II, III, or IV.

Note: In addition to verifying hours of sexual assault victim advocacy experience, applicants must also have provided victim advocacy services in the past two years on three or more occasions, to one or more victims. See Verification of Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience (pages 6 - 7) for further details.

- I am already certified at Level I, but do not have enough time and/or the required Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience for a higher level. I do not need to verify my sexual assault victim advocacy experience. I am not submitting Verification or Evaluations of additional Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience. I am re-applying for renewal at Level I.
- I am re-applying for renewal at my level of Level II, III, or IV. I do not need to verify my sexual assault victim advocacy experience.
- I am applying for renewal and advancement to the next level in certification. I must submit Verification(s) of Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience (pages 6 - 7) and Evaluation(s) of Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience (pages 8 - 9).
- Evaluation(s) of Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience (pages 8 - 9). Submit completed Evaluation(s) of Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience signed and dated by your supervisor(s) after determining the appropriate level to which you should apply.

Instructions for submittal can be found at www.sapr.mil.

11. Make victim referrals to other resources or services only in the victim's best interest, avoiding any conflict of interest in the process, and do so in accordance with DoD regulations.

II. In relationships with colleagues, other professionals, and the public, the SARC/SAPR VA shall:

Evaluation of Sexual Assault Victim Advocacy Experience: In addition to the Level II, III, and IV minimum hours requirement, Applicants must submit evaluations of three instances or occasions within the past two years where the Applicant provided victim advocacy services to a person victimized by sexual assault.

Evaluator: The person(s) evaluating the Applicant's victim advocacy services may be any person with authority and/or in a position to have observed and evaluated the Applicant's knowledge, skill, and work experience as a SARC, SAPR VA, civilian victim advocate, or any other position where the Applicant provided sexual assault victim advocacy services. The evaluation may be from the same evaluator, or from up to three different evaluators.

What may be evaluated: Any instance or occasion where the Applicant provided victim advocacy services to a sexual assault victim may be evaluated. Three separate instances need to be evaluated.

The evaluations submitted may be for services provided to the same victim. Therefore, a SARC or SAPR VA assisting a victim in an extensive or complex case can have three victim advocacy evaluations for support to one victim. Likewise, an applicant who has worked with several victims may obtain evaluations of experience with different victims.

Example: An example of an experience that may be evaluated includes, but is not limited to: providing/explaining reporting options; attendance at medical examination(s); attending investigatory interview; assisting a victim before, during, and after a legal interview; and providing support before and after meetings of the victim and his/her supervisor. Each of these examples alone should be sufficient for one evaluation.

Only three (3) victim advocacy response evaluations are required. Print additional copies of Evaluation pages as necessary.
