Part II - Definition of Harassment

It shall be unlawful for any owner or any person acting on his or her behalf, directly, or indirectly, to engage in any course of conduct (including, but not limited to, interruption or discontinuance of required services, or unwarranted or baseless court proceedings) which interferes with, or disturbs, or is intended to interfere with or disturb the privacy, comfort, peace, repose or quiet enjoyment of the tenant in his or her use or occupancy of the housing accommodations, or is intended to cause the tenant to vacate such housing accommodation or waive any right afforded under the Rent Regulatory Laws.

There must be a willful interruption in services or a continuing course of conduct, as distinguished from an isolated incident.

Persons using this form may be summoned to testify under oath in court or before this agency in connection with criminal or civil action initiated on the basis of the statements contained herein. Painting complaints, other service complaints, and complaints of violations such as overcharges, bonus payments, furniture tie-in sales, security deposits, lease renewals, etc., should not be filed on this form, but on other appropriate forms which may be obtained at your local Borough or District Rent Office.

Penalties for Proven Violations: Owners found guilty of harassment are subject to fines imposed by the Commissioner of not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000 for each offense. The Division of Housing and Community Renewal (DHCR) will permit no future rent increases once there has been a finding of harassment, until such finding is lifted by DHCR order. In addition, DHCR may refer harassment violations to the District Attorney. Harassment of a rent regulated tenant which causes physical injury is a Class E Felony, punishable by imprisonment and fine.
