Immigration Status and Social Security Numbers

You may get assistance for some people you live with even if others you live with can't because of their immigration status. You must tell us the immigration status of anyone who applies. Immigration status of household members may be verified by USCIS (formerly known as INS). Information received from USCIS may affect eligibility and benefit amounts. We have health care coverage that may cover some aliens.

Under Federal Law (42 CFR § 435.910, 45 CFR §205.52, 7 CFR §273.6), you must give us the Social Security Number (SSN) for anyone you live with who applies for Washington Apple Health. TANF, or food assistance. We may also need SSNs of parents and spouses who live with you but don't apply. We have health care coverage for some people who don't have SSNs.

Citizenship and Identity for Washington Apple Health

U.S. citizens must prove citizenship and identity to receive Washington Apple Health. We can help you obtain the proof. If we need a document that will cost you money, we send for it and pay the cost. We don't need proof for anyone in your household who receives Medicare, Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) based on their own disability or Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Repaying the State for Medical and Long Term Care

Under Washington State Estate Recovery law (RCW 41.05A.090, RCW 43.20B.080), your estate may need to pay back the costs the State paid for certain types of medical and long-term services and supports you received after you turned age 55. There is no age limit if you received state-only funded services. Estate Recovery begins after your death; payment is due after the death of your surviving spouse, or when your child(ren) turns age 21, unless the child was blind/disabled at your time of death. The State can file a pre-death lien on your real property, at any age, if you live in a nursing home and are unlikely to return home. The State can collect on this lien if you sell or transfer the property, or after your death. If you return home the State removes the lien. For more information, including a list of services subject to Estate Recovery, see Chapter 182-527 WAC.
