Judicial Officer

Right to Cancel Hearing: Information for the Person in ①

- If item ④(a)(2) or ④(a)(3) is checked, the judge has denied some or all of the temporary orders you requested until the court hearing. The judge may make the orders you want after the court hearing. You can keep the hearing date, or you can cancel your request for orders so there is no court hearing.
- If you want to cancel the hearing, use form DV-112, Waiver of Hearing on Denied Request for Temporary Restraining Order. Fill it out and file it with the court as soon as possible. You may file a new request for orders, on the same or different facts, at a later time.
- If you cancel the hearing, do not serve the documents listed in item ⑥ on the other person.
- If you want to keep the hearing date, you must have all of the documents listed in item ⑥ served on the other person within the time listed in item ⑥.
- At the hearing, the judge will consider whether denial of any requested orders will jeopardize your safety and the safety of children for whom you are requesting custody or visitation.
- You must come to the hearing if you want the judge to make restraining orders or continue any orders already made. If you cancel the hearing or do not come to the hearing, any restraining orders made on form DV-110 will end on the date of the hearing.

To the Person in ① :

- The court cannot make the restraining orders after the court hearing unless the person in ② has been personally given (served) a copy of your request and any temporary orders. To show that the person in ② has been served, the person who served the forms must fill out a proof of service form. form DV-200, Proof of Personal Service, may be used.
- For information about service, read form DV-200-INFO, What Is “Proof of Personal Service”?
- If you are unable to serve the person in ② in time, you may ask for more time to serve the documents. Read form DV-115-INFO, How to Ask for a New Hearing Date.

To the Person in ② :

- If you want to respond in writing, mail a copy of your completed form DV-120, Response to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order, to the person in ① and file it with the court. You cannot mail form DV-120 yourself. Someone age 18 or older — not you — must do it.
- To show that the person in ① has been served by mail, the person who mailed the form must fill out a proof of service form. Form DV-250, Proof of Service by Mail, may be used. File the completed form with the court before the hearing and bring a copy with you to the hearing.
- For information about responding to a restraining order and filing your answer, read form DV-120-INFO, How Can I Respond to a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order?.
- Whether or not you respond in writing, go to the hearing if you want the judge to hear from you before making an order. You may tell the judge why you agree or disagree with the orders requested. You may bring witnesses and other evidence.
- At the hearing, the judge may make restraining orders against you that could last up to five years.
- The judge may also make other orders about your children, child support, spousal support, money, and property and may order you to turn in or sell any firearms that you own or possess.

Request for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the hearing. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms for Request for Accommodations by Persons with Disabilities and Response (form MC-410). (Civ. Code, § 54.8.)
