CONCLUSIONS OF LAW AND JUDGMENT

A. The Court grants a judgment of

- 1. Divorce. The marriage between the parties is dissolved and the parties are divorced effective on date of hearing. other date:

The parties are informed by the court that under §765.03(2), Wis. Stats.

It is unlawful for any person who is or has been a party to an action of divorce in any court in this state, or elsewhere, to marry again until six months after judgment of divorce is granted, and the marriage of any such person solemnized before the expiration of six months from the date of the granting of judgment of divorce shall be void.

In A, check 1 or 2 and enter the effective date.

- 2. Legal Separation. The marital relationship is broken and the parties are granted a judgment of legal separation effective on date of hearing. other date:

The parties are informed by the court that under §767.35, Wis. Stats.:

- In case of reconciliation, at any time, the parties may apply for a revocation of the judgment of legal separation.
The court shall convert the decree to a decree of divorce:
by stipulation of both parties at any time, OR upon motion of either party not earlier than one year after entry of a decree of legal separation.

In B.1, check the appropriate boxes and enter the date [month, day, year] that the party(s) signed the checked document and attach the document. If the court made changes, write them in the space provided. If 1 does not apply, check 2.

B. Final Orders

2.  The wife is awarded the right to use a former legal surname of _____.
3.  The husband is awarded the right to use a former legal surname of _____.

Note: If this is an action for legal separation, the court cannot allow a spouse to resume a former legal surname unless and until the judgment is converted to a divorce.

E. Maintenance

1. Pursuant to §767.75, Wis. Stats., this judgment constitutes an immediate assignment of all commissions, earnings, salaries, wages, pension benefits, benefits under Chapter 102 or 108, and other money due or to be due in the future, to the WI SCTF. The assignment shall be for an amount sufficient to ensure payment under this judgment, so long as the addition of the amount toward arrears does not leave the party at an income below the poverty line established under 42 USC 9902(2).
2. Pursuant to §767.57(1)(a), Wis. Stats., all payments for maintenance ordered shall note the case number and the names of the parties on the face of the check, should be made payable to WI SCTF, and sent to:

Wisconsin Support Collections Trust Fund
Box 74200
Milwaukee, WI 53274-0200

The WI SCTF will transmit the payments to the proper persons entitled to them.

Failure of an employer to pay the proper amount shall not be a defense for failure to pay the proper amount. If an employer fails to take out the correct amount for maintenance, the party paying is responsible for paying the full and correct amount directly to WI SCTF.

Pursuant to §767.57(1e), Wis. Stats., the party making payment for maintenance is responsible for payment of the annual receiving and disbursing fee to WI SCTF.

3. If maintenance is not denied, both parties shall notify, in writing, the other party and the Clerk of Court and the Child Support Agency of the county in which this action is filed, within 10 business days, of any change of employer and employer's address.
4. Pursuant to §767.75, Wis. Stats., a withholding assignment or order under this section has priority over any other assignment, garnishment, or similar legal process under Wisconsin law. The employer shall not withhold more of the employee's disposable income than allowed pursuant to the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act unless the employee agrees to have the full amount withheld. No employer may use an assignment under this section to deny employment, or to discharge or take disciplinary action against an employee.

F. Property Division

Notice is given of the provisions of §767.61 (5) (a) and (b) and §767.61(6), Wis. Stats. The parties shall transfer title to property of the parties as necessary, in accordance with the division of property set forth in the judgment.

The parties are notified that

1. it may be necessary for the parties to take additional actions in order to transfer interests in their property in accordance with the division of property set forth in the judgment, including such interests as interests in real property, interests in retirement benefits, and contractual interests.
2. the judgment does not necessarily affect the ability of a creditor to proceed against a party or against that party's property even though the party is not responsible for the debt under the terms of the judgment.

- 3. an instrument executed by a party before the judgment naming the other party as a beneficiary is not necessarily affected by the judgment and it may be necessary to revise the instrument if a change in beneficiary is desired.
- 4. a deed consistent with the judgment or a certified copy of the portion of the judgment affecting title to real property shall be recorded in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which the real property is located.

G. Court Ordered Fees

All payments of attorney fees shall be paid directly to the attorney or to the agency providing services which may enforce the order in its name.

H. Restraining Order

Both parties are restrained from interfering with the personal liberty of the other.

I. Non-Compliance

Disobedience of the court orders is punishable under ch. 785 Wis. Stats. by commitment to the county jail until the judgment is complied with and the costs and expense of the proceedings are paid or until the party committed is otherwise discharged, according to law.

J. Entry of Judgment

The Clerk of Court's office, per §806.06(1)(2), Wis. Stats., shall enter this judgment by affixing a file stamp that is dated.
