{County Code Section 9-134 (b)} Registration of an alarm system is not intended to, nor will it, create a contract, duty or obligation, either expressed or implied, of response. Any and all liability and consequential damage resulting from the failure to respond to a notification is hereby disclaimed and governmental immunity as provided by law is retained. By registering an alarm system, the alarm user acknowledges that police response may be based on factors such as availability of police units, priority of calls, weather conditions, traffic conditions, emergency conditions and staffing levels.

A Synopsis of the Prince George's County Alarm Law, Subtitle 9, Sections 9-130 to 9-141

The law requires that all alarm users register their alarm system with the Prince George's County Police Department, False Alarm Reduction Unit before using their system. Any changes in the information contained in the application must be forwarded to:

The False Alarm Reduction Unit: 9201 Basil Court, Suite 107, Largo, Maryland 20774

This notification must be made within ten (10) days of the change.

False Alarm Signal Occurrence	False Alarm Response Fee
1 st , 2 nd , or 3 rd	No Fee
4 th , 5 th , or 6 th	$50.00 each
7 th , 8 th , or 9 th	$100.00 each
10 th , 11 th , or 12 th	$150.00 each
13 th or greater	$200.00 each

Alarm companies must notify alarm users in writing within seventy-two (72) hours after the alarm business requests response to a signal from the user's alarm system.

Alarm companies must not request police response to an alarm activation if the alarm system has not been properly registered with the Prince George's County Police Department, False Alarm Reduction Unit.

An alarm business must not install or maintain, and an alarm user must not use, an audible system, which can sound continuously for more than thirty (30) minutes.

An alarm user permit is valid only for the premises registered and is NOT transferable to another alarm user or premises. A new permit must be obtained for each alarm site.

Failure to register an alarm system, pay alarm response fees or meet other requirements detailed in the County Code, will subject the alarm user to additional fines or the revocation of police response to future alarm activations.

Alarm systems that are not monitored, but may be heard outside of the alarm location, must be registered with the Prince George's County Police Department, False Alarm Reduction Unit.

Fire alarm systems, temperature or humidity alarm systems and vehicle alarms are not covered by this law and do not need to be registered with the Prince George's County Police Department, False Alarm Reduction Unit.

Alarm users residing or doing business within the municipal boundaries of: Bladensburg, Greenbelt, Laurel, Hyattsville and Riverdale are exempt from registration with Prince George's County Police Department, False Alarm Reduction Unit.
