INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF A REQUEST FOR ABANDONED FUNDS

When completing the request form, either fill out the form online, then print and sign, or print the form and fill in the information clearly in the boxes provided. Use black or blue ink.

Payee Name of Abandoned Property

Enter the name of the person named in the Office of State Treasurer website, publications or other notifications you have received or read.

Claimant (Your) Telephone Number

Enter your telephone number here. You are the claimant. This may or may not be the person named in the Office of State Treasurer website, publications or other notifications.

Social Security Number (SSN) of Person Named as Payee of this Abandoned Property (Omitting the SSN may delay payment.)

Enter the social security number of the individual named in the Office of State Treasurer website, publications or other notifications. This may be you or someone else if you are claiming as part of an estate.

KIDS Personal Identification Number (PIN) if Known

Enter the KIDS child support system personal identification number (PIN) of the person for whom the abandoned funds were originally intended.

Payee Name for the New Check

Enter the payee name for the new check. This is whom the new check will be paid to. This is generally the name and address of the person named on the Office of State Treasurer website or publication. If it is not, please attach detailed supporting documentation, including your name, address and your role/relationship in this matter.

Address, City, State, and Zip Code

Enter the address for the payee of the new check. This is where the new check will be mailed.

Signature of Person Making Claim for Abandoned Property

This is the signature of the person making the claim for abandoned property. The signature must be notarized. If it is not the person that is named in the Office of State Treasurer abandoned property website or publication, please attach an explanation and notarized copies of supporting documentation.

If more than one person, please provide the signature of the other person making a claim for Abandoned Property.

If more than one person is making the claim for abandoned property (Example: the claim is part of an estate that is jointly administered), please provide the signature of the other person(s) here. Signature(s) must also be notarized.

If the form is not properly notarized, it cannot be processed.

If the person making this claim is acting on behalf of the payee's estate, then you must attach notarized copies of your authorization to act in this capacity.

If you have any questions regarding this form, please call the Bureau of Child Support at (608) 266-9909.
