IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- This form is to be used by non-residents requesting a refund based on days worked outside the City of St. Louis. Stock options not represented on the W-2 will require documentation from your employer.
- Please use Form E-1 if you owe the City of St. Louis Earnings Tax.
- Annual leave, sick leave, and/or separation pay of any person who is terminated or separated from a place of employment located within the City of St. Louis is taxable in the year received. No exceptions will be allowed on the basis of where it is earned or where the taxpayer resides.
- Employees who work remotely from home should be treated as working at their original principal place of work. These days may not be included in the Non-Residency Deduction formula on Form E-1R when claiming a refund.
- There is a one year statute of limitations on refund claims. Form 1099-G will be issued to all taxpayers receiving a refund.
- Form E-1R must be filed on or before April 15th. Joint returns will not be permitted. Please mail all returns to:

EMPLOYEE VERIFICATION SECTION
(TO BE COMPLETED BY EACH EMPLOYER)

In order to claim a non-residency deduction, the following must be completed by the appropriate personnel. Non-resident taxpayers seeking a "Non-Residency Deduction" must only claim whole days worked outside the City. Employees who start and/or finish their work day in the City are not allowed to use that as a day worked out of the City per Streckfus Steamers vs. City of St. Louis 472 S.W. 2d 660 (1971). Please note: neither vacation and sick days nor holidays are allowed as a deduction.

This is to certify the below mentioned employee, a non-resident of the City of St. Louis, worked a total of _____ days including vacation, sick, and holidays everywhere.

This is to certify the below mentioned employee, a non-resident of the City of St. Louis, worked outside the City of St. Louis a total of _____ whole days

Address of work location must be provided for days worked outside the City of St. Louis. Please complete Form E-1RV and submit with this return.

The standard work year is 260 days. If the employee worked more or less than 260 days or moved in or out of the City of St. Louis during the year, an explanation must be provided on the line below (attach separate sheet if additional space is needed).

I certify, to the best of my knowledge, that the above information is true and accurate, and the records are available to verify this information.
