FOODSHARE WISCONSIN PENALTY WARNING

Any member of your household who intentionally breaks any of the following rules can be barred from FoodShare Wisconsin for 12 months after the first violation, 24 months after the second violation or for a first violation involving a controlled substance, and permanently for the third violation:

- Giving false information or hiding information to get or continue FoodShare benefits,
- Trading, selling or altering FoodShare benefits,
- Using FoodShare benefits to buy non-food items, like alcohol or tobacco, or
- Using another person’s FoodShare benefits, identification cards or other documentation.

Depending upon the value of misused benefits, the individual can also be fined up to $250,000, imprisoned up to 20 years, or both. A court can also bar an individual from the program for an additional 18 months. You will also be permanently disqualified if you are convicted of trafficking FoodShare benefits of $500 or more. You will be ineligible to participate for 10 years if you are found to have made a fraudulent statement or representation with respect to identity and residence in order to receive multiple benefits at the same time. Fleeing felons and probation/parole violators are ineligible for the program. The individual may also be subject to further prosecution under other applicable federal laws.

Expenses: I understand that expenses I report such as shelter, utility, child care, child support, or medical costs may affect the level of FoodShare benefits my household receives. I understand that failure to report or verify an expense means that I do not want to receive a deduction for this expense.

Income Reduction: I understand that I am not required to report a reduction or loss of income; however, I may be entitled to a higher FoodShare benefit if I do. I understand that as long as I do not report a reduction in my household’s monthly income or the loss of any household income, that I will not receive any resulting increase in my FoodShare benefit.

I understand there are penalties for hiding information or giving false information. I also understand I will have to pay back any benefits I receive because I do not fully report changes in my circumstances. I agree to provide proof of any changes, if asked to do so. My answers on this form are correct and complete to the best of my knowledge.

Your SSN permits a computer check of your information with government agencies such as the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), Social Security Administration (SSA) and the Department of Workforce Development, as well as the School Lunch Program. Social Security numbers are also used to check the identity of household members and to verify income from such sources as employers, banks and other parties.
