

Part I. Requirements and Expenses

Requirements:

United States (US) Universities are required by law to verify that students entering the US with temporary student visas have adequate financial resources to meet the expenses of their program of study. You must complete this form in order to receive a Certificate of Eligibility (Form I-20 or DS-2019) from Clemson University (CU), which you will use to apply for your US student visa. All signatures and documentation provided must be originals and must be less than six months old. Support may come from any combination of sources, including personal, family, or sponsored funds. Be sure to provide documentation for each source of funding. If you have more than one sponsor, print or copy this form as many times as necessary.

Annual Expenses (Minimum amount you must show available to you):

	Undergraduate	Graduate	Dependent
Tuition and Fees (includes Health Insurance)	$29600.00	*$17191.00	$6000.00 for spouse
Living Expenses	$12250.00	$12250.00	$4380.00 per child
Books and Supplies	$1100.00	$1100.00
TOTAL	$42950.00	$30541.00

*For exact tuition and fees for your program, please see: <http://www.clemson.edu/cfo/student-financials/tuition-fees/index.html>

Additional Information:

University tuition, fees and health insurance costs are subject to change without notice. You should not plan to obtain a graduate student assistantship or other financial aid after your arrival if you have not already been offered such assistance. If you are offered an assistantship, a portion of your tuition will be waived by the university. In lieu of tuition, the Graduate Assistant will be required to certify the amount for fees ($2060.00 per year), living expenses ($12,250 per year), and books & supplies ($1100 per year).

You will need to prepare sufficient financial support for the entire period of study. The usual amounts of time to complete degrees at Clemson are: Doctorate-60 months (5 years), Master's-24 months (2 years), Bachelor's-48 months (4 years). Monetary support may come from any combination of sources (sponsor, family, personal, graduate assistantship-but only if you have already been notified that you are receiving one). You must provide a certified bank statement or other certified financial documentation showing you have immediate access to funds for at least one academic year or duration of your stay if your program is shorter than one academic year.

Part IV. Sponsor Information

Note: Government-sponsored or scholarship recipients must provide a copy of the official award letter. The letter should include the US dollar amount (per year) of the award. Scholarship letters must state that the scholarship has been awarded for study at Clemson University and should list the expenses covered by the award as well as the maximum amounts available to cover each expense (fees, books, housing, etc.). Letters for transfer students must also specifically state that funds will be available for study at Clemson University. If the financial document is not in your name, the account holder is your sponsor. A sponsor refers to the individual(s) who will support and pay for your stay. The sponsor must complete and sign the following section of this form.
