

GUIDE TO ADMISSION AGREEMENTS FOR RESIDENTIAL CARE FACILITY FOR THE ELDERLY

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

You may use these instructions and the following form as a guide to create an admission agreement for your facility, or you may modify and use this form. If you have questions, please contact your licensing office.

Definition:

An admission agreement contract includes all documents that a resident or responsible person must sign at the time of, or as a condition of, admission. It may not include any written attachment that contains prohibited provision(s).

Reference: Health & Safety (H&S) Code Sections 1569.154, 1569.880.

Language and Format:

The admission agreement must be:

- Written in clear, easily understandable language, using words with common and everyday meaning.
- Appropriately divided with each section suitably captioned.
- Printed in black ink, 12-point type size, on plain white paper using only one side of the paper.

Reference: H&S Code Sections 1569.882.

Standard of Responsibility/Liability and Unlawful Provisions:

The admission agreement must not:

- Require or imply a lesser standard of responsibility for the residents' personal property than is required by law.
Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.154
- Release you from responsibility for providing a safe and healthful facility, equipment, and accommodations.
Reference: Title 22 California Code of Regulations (CCR) Section 87568
- Include any provision of unlawful waivers of facility liability for the residents' health and safety or personal property.
Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.883(a)
- Include any provision that you know, or should know, is deceptive or unlawful.
Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.883(b)

Posting, Copies, Retention:

- You must retain the original admission agreement and any modifications in the resident's file.
Reference: CCR Section 87568
- You must provide a copy to the resident and responsible person, if any, or conservator.
Reference: CCR Section 87568
- You must make blank complete copies of the admission agreement immediately available to the public. You may charge the cost for copying and mailing. A complete copy of a blank admission agreement, or notice of its availability, must be placed in a conspicuous location accessible to public view in the facility.
Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.881
- A list of other services and charges available through the facility must be posted in a location accessible to residents.
Reference: CCR Section 87568

Optional Services:

You may assess a separate charge for an item for service only if authorized by the admission agreement. If additional services are available through the facility to be purchased by the resident that were not available at the time the admission agreement was signed, a list of these services and charges shall be provided to the resident or the resident's responsible person. A statement acknowledging the acceptance or refusal to purchase the additional services shall be signed and dated by the resident or the resident's responsible person and attached to the admission agreement.

Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.884(c)

Preadmission Fees:

You may charge a single preadmission fee for non-SSI/SSP residents as long as you provide a written general statement describing costs associated with the fee and you state whether or not the fee is refundable. You may not charge a deposit against any possible damages by the resident. If the fee or some portion is refundable, the written statement must describe the conditions for refund.

Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.651

Dementia:

You must include a statement informing residents and/or responsible persons and conservators that environments, services and programs specific to dementia care are described in the facility's plan of operation and the plan is available for review upon request.

Reference: CCR Section 87725

Theft and Loss Program:

You do not need to notify a resident(s) of the policies and procedures concerning the facility's theft and loss prevention program, if the unit can be secured by the resident(s), and providing there are no unrelated residents sharing the unit.

Reference: H&S Code Section 1569.153(m)

Note:

This admissions agreement is structured so that paragraphs titled "A" indicate specific requirement(s), while paragraphs titled "B", "C" and "D" offer possible methods of referring to the requirement in your admission agreement.
