Information about cash benefits

Cash benefits is also known as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) or Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA). Cash benefits are for meeting a family's basic needs like food, clothing, shelter and utilities.

Most cash benefits in Oregon are issued via an Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) card. This is known as an Oregon Trail Card. Cash assistance benefits may not be withdrawn or spent using an Oregon Trail Card in any:

- Liquor store. This includes retail businesses that only or mostly sell beer or wine.
- Casino, gambling casino or gaming establishment.
- Retail business that provides adult entertainment in which performers disrobe or perform in an unclothed state. This includes adult video stores that only or mostly sell or feature adult-oriented videos or movies.
- Marijuana dispensary.

These restrictions apply:

- In Oregon.
- Outside Oregon.
- On tribal lands.

These restrictions also apply to cash benefits in a private bank account.

If you are applying for cash for families:

“Assigning” payments and the state’s right to place a lien on any injury claims

To qualify for assistance, you must let DHS have money you or other members of your family, including any child born in the future, receive or have the right to receive from:

- Other people, businesses or other sources who are or may be liable to cover costs related to an injury, such as a car accident.

There is a limit on how much DHS can take. It cannot take more than the amount it has paid in cash benefits for you and your family.

By signing this form, you agree to help DHS find and obtain these payments. If you or a family member receiving benefits is in an accident or injured by another person or business you must tell DHS within 10 days. The state may place a lien on money from such claims.

If you are applying for cash for families:

What you need to know about “assigning support”

“Support” means money you get for you or your children, like alimony or child support.

When you get cash benefits, you are “assigning” the state the right to keep the support you or anyone in your family get from another person. The money goes to repay the state for the cash you get.

NOTE: This does not apply during any period of time you receive cash benefits from JOBS Plus, the State Family Pre-SSI/SSDI Program (SFPSS) or the Post-TANF Program; when you are a two-parent family; or when you are receiving Employment Payments.

This means that while you are getting cash benefits:

The state will keep part of the support payments (for both current and past-due payments) received for you and members of your family. The state will not keep all your child support. The state will send you $50 of current child support received per child per month up to $200 per family per month. The state will not count this money as income when figuring your eligibility and benefits.

NOTE: If you are an applicant for cash assistance and you are in SFPSS or JOBS Plus, or you are a two-parent family, the state will generally not keep any of your child support. When determining your eligibility and benefits, $50 (per child per month up to $200 per family per month) of current child support received will not be counted towards your monthly income.

When you leave the cash program:

- Current support payments will go to you;
- Any past-due payments for months you were on cash assistance will be kept by the state;
- Any past-due payments for months you were not on cash assistance may go to you.

Working with Child Support

While you are getting cash benefits, you will need to work with the state's Child Support Program.

Important: You do not have to work with child support if you think it would mean danger for you or your children.

Working with child support can mean:

- Helping to locate your child's other parent (unless you think it would mean danger for you or your children);
- Legally naming the child's father (establishing paternity);
- Getting a support order.

Information about TANF program penalties

If you knowingly do the following to get Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) and/or Refugee Cash Assistance (RCA) you will get a penalty:

- Give false information about yourself or someone you are applying for;
- Hide information about yourself or someone you are applying for;
- Give false information about where you live.

The first time you do any of these things you will not get TANF for 12 months. The second time you will not get TANF for 24 months. The third time you will not be able to get TANF at all. You will also have to pay back all the TANF you were not supposed to get. Your food benefits will not go up even though you get less in TANF if you told us something that was not true or did not tell us something that was true.

Why we need your Social Security number

Social Security numbers (SSN) – Federal laws (42 USC 1320b-7(a) and (b), 7 USC 2011-2036, 42 CFR 435.910, 42 CFR 435.920 and 42 CFR 457.340(b)) and DHS rule (OAR 461-120-0210) require anyone applying for cash or food benefits to give DHS their SSN. If you provide an SSN, it can speed up the application process. If someone doesn't have an SSN, visit www.ssa.gov.

- a. DHS will use your SSN to help decide if you are eligible for benefits. Your SSN will be used to verify your income, other assets and to match with other state and federal records such as IRS, Medicaid, child support, Social Security, Unemployment benefits and other public assistance programs.
- b. DHS may use your SSN to prepare aggregate information or reports requested by funding sources for the program you apply for or receive benefits from.
- c. DHS may use or disclose your SSN:
 - If it is needed to operate the program you apply for or receive benefits from;
 - To conduct quality assessment and improvement activities;
 - To verify the correct amount of payments and recover overpaid benefits;
 - To make sure nobody gets benefits in more than one household.

Social Security numbers not required for Refugee Cash Assistance.

¹SNAP clients are protected against political belief discrimination.

²Sexual orientation is protected by the State of Oregon, but not federal laws.
