Instructions

Ask for your extension online – Instead of using paper Form MTA-7 to request an extension of time to file, you can complete your request for free on our Web site (at www.tax.ny.gov).

If you owe tax, you must pay it by the original date that your metropolitan commuter transportation mobility tax (MCTMT) return is due.

General information

Purpose – File Form MTA-7 on or before the due date of Form MTA-6, Metropolitan Commuter Transportation Mobility Tax Return, to get an automatic six-month extension of time to file your return.

If you are requesting an extension of time to file using Form MTA-7, you may still file Form MTA-6 electronically.

We cannot grant an extension of time to file for more than six months if you live in the United States. However, you may qualify for an extension of time to file beyond six months under section 157.3(b)(1) of the personal income tax regulations if you are outside the United States and Puerto Rico.

When to file – File Form MTA-7 on or before the filing deadline for your MCTMT return (extension applications filed after the filing deadline for the return are invalid).

However, you may file Form MTA-7 on or before:

- June 30, 2014, if you qualify for an automatic two-month extension of time to file your MCTMT return because 1) you are a U.S. citizen or resident and live outside the U.S. and your main place of business or post of duty is outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico; or 2) you are in the military service outside the U.S. and Puerto Rico when your 2013 MCTMT return is due and you need an additional four months to file (October 31, 2014);
• June 16, 2014, if you are a U.S. nonresident alien for federal income tax purposes and you qualify to file your MCTMT return on June 16, 2014, and you need an additional six months to file (December 15, 2014);
• July 29, 2014, (if your due date is April 30, 2014) or September 15, 2014, (if you are a nonresident alien and your due date is June 16, 2014), if you qualify for a 90-day extension of time to file because your spouse died within 30 days before your return due date and you need additional time to file.

See Special condition codes.

If you qualify for an extension of time to file beyond six months, you must file Form MTA-7 on or before the filing deadline for your MCTMT return.

How to file – File Form MTA-7 along with payment for any MCTMT due, on or before the due date of your return. Use the worksheet on the back to determine if a payment is required.

Spouses who are both required to file an MCTMT return must complete separate Forms MTA-7. You cannot file a joint MCTMT return or extension application.

Payment of tax – To obtain an extension of time to file, you must make full payment of the properly estimated MCTMT due. Payment may be made by check or money order enclosed with Form MTA-7.

Fee for payments returned by banks – The law allows the Tax Department to charge a $50 fee when a check, money order, or electronic payment is returned by a bank for nonpayment. However, if an electronic payment is returned as a result of an error by the bank or the department, the department won't charge the fee. If your payment is returned, we will send a separate bill for $50 for each return or other tax document associated with the returned payment.

Penalties

Late payment penalty – If you do not pay your MCTMT liability when due (determined with regard to any extension of time to pay), you will have to pay a penalty of ½ of 1% of the unpaid amount for each month or part of a month it is not paid, up to a maximum of 25%. The penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for paying late. This penalty is in addition to the interest charged for late payments.

Reasonable cause will be presumed with respect to the addition to tax for late payment of MCTMT if the requirements relating to extensions of time to file have been complied with, the balance due shown on the MCTMT return is no greater than 10% of the total MCTMT shown on the MCTMT return, and the balance due shown on the MCTMT return is paid with the return.

Late filing penalty – If you do not file your Form MTA-6 when due (determined with regard to any extension of time to file), or if you do not file Form MTA-7 on time and obtain an extension of time to file, you will have to pay a penalty of 5% of the MCTMT due for each month, or part of a month, the return is late, up to a maximum of 25%. However, if your MCTMT return is not filed within 60 days of the time prescribed for filing a return (including extensions), this penalty will not be less than the lesser of $100 or 100% of the amount required to be shown as MCTMT due on the return reduced by any MCTMT paid. The penalty will not be charged if you can show reasonable cause for filing late.

Interest

Interest will be charged on any amount of MCTMT that is not paid on or before the due date of your MCTMT return, even if you received an extension of time to file your MCTMT return. Interest is a charge for the use of money and in most cases may not be waived. Interest is compounded daily and the rate is adjusted quarterly.

Specific instructions

See the instructions for Form MTA-6 for the Privacy notification or if you need help contacting the Tax Department.

Filing in your form – Use black ink only (no red or other color ink or pencils) to print or type all entries.

Do not write in dollar signs, commas, or decimal points when making entries. All necessary punctuation has been printed on the form.

Name and address box – Enter your social security number and print your name and address in the spaces provided. Your name must be spelled correctly, with your first name entered first on the form. Failure to provide a social security number may invalidate this extension. If you do not have a social security number, enter do not have one. If you do not have a social security number, but have applied for one, enter applied for.

Foreign addresses – Enter the information in the following order: city, province or state, and then country (all in the City, village, or post office box). Follow the country's practice for entering the postal code. Do not abbreviate the country name.

Special condition codes – If you qualified for an automatic two-month extension of time to file because you are out of the country and need an additional four months to file (October 31, 2014), enter special condition code E3. If you are a nonresident alien and your filing due date is June 16, 2014, and you need an additional six months to file (December 15, 2014), enter special condition code E4. If you qualified for a 90-day extension of time to file because your spouse died, and you need additional time to file (on or before October 31, 2014, or in the case of a nonresident alien, on or before December 15, 2014), enter special condition code D9. Also, enter the applicable special condition code, E3, E4, or D9, on Form MTA-6 when you file your return.

Paid preparer's responsibilities – Under the law, all paid preparers must sign and complete the paid preparer section of the return. Paid preparers may be subject to civil and/or criminal sanctions if they fail to complete this section in full.

When signing Form MTA-7, you must enter your New York tax preparer registration identification number (NYTPRIN) if you are required to have one. Also, you must enter your federal preparer tax identification number (PTIN) if you have one; if not, you must enter your social security number.
