

Reporting Your Address Change to DMV

Your County Treasurer's Office was able to process your vehicle registration; however, please note that the vehicle registration reflects your previous address. DMV must take additional steps to validate your new address, which may be located close to a county line or in a newly developed subdivision. To correct our records, you must approve this change to your official DMV record. Please complete this form and mail it to SCDMV. You will receive a corrected vehicle registration at no charge once the address change is processed.
