APPLICATION AND APPEAL PROCESS:

- (a) An application will be deemed complete unless, within five (5) working days, the applicant is given written notice that the application is incomplete and told what information is missing, either in person or by a letter addressed to the applicant and deposited in the U.S. mail.
- (b) Within ten (10) working days of receipt of a completed application for a special event permit and with five (5) working days of receipt of a completed application for a temporary outdoor promotion permit, the Director of Planning Services shall issue a permit, unless denial of the permit is mandated under Section 11.05.100 of the Aliso Viejo Municipal Code.
- (c) The Director of Planning Services shall impose conditions on any permit issued to coordinate multiple uses of public property, assure preservation of public property and public places, prevent dangerous, unlawful or impermissible uses, protect the safety of persons and property, and to control vehicular and pedestrian traffic in and around the venue. The Director of Planning Services shall impose conditions on the temporary outdoor promotion permit to prevent negative impacts to surrounding persons and properties and to ensure compliance with provisions of the municipal code.
- (d) Up until the third (3rd) working day after the date on which the notice was delivered personally or via facsimile to the applicant, the applicant can appeal the decision or any conditions imposed. The appeal fee is $127.00. The city council shall hear the applicant's appeal no later than fourteen (14) days following its filing at a regular meeting, if scheduled, or a special meeting, if necessary. The applicant, by written request, may waive the time limits for the hearing on appeal to the city council, but not waive the time limit within which an appeal may be filed.
