DISTRIBUTING COPIES

What to do with your completed documents:

- Take your original documents to the civil business office to be filed.
- Also bring one set of copies with your original documents so the clerk can file-stamp (conform) them for you to keep for your records.
- Have a copy of the Answer and Proof of Service served on the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney (see Service section below).

SERVICE

Once you have completed the forms, you are required to notify the other side that you intend to answer or respond. This is called service of process, or serving, which simply means giving a copy of your answer and proof of service to the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney, if they have one. You cannot do this yourself, but anyone who is over the age of 18 who is not a party to the case can serve the papers for you. You may also have a registered process server serve these papers, but you should be aware that they charge a fee for this service. The person who serves the plaintiff or the plaintiff's attorney needs to complete a Proof of Service (see above), and give it to you so you can file it with the court.

FILING AT THE COURT

How to file documents with the court:

- Take your original documents and copies to the civil business office to be filed.
- Pay the appropriate filing fee for each person that signed the Answer,
OR
- File a fee waiver for each person that signed the Answer. The clerk will file-stamp your copies and return them to you.

If a party to this case will need an interpreter for a hearing, an Interpreter Request/Cancellation Form (SDSC Form #ADM-348) must be submitted. More information may be found on the court's website at www.sdcourt.ca.gov.

A defendant tenant may use this form to file a declaration of COVID-19–related financial distress with the court if a plaintiff has filed an unlawful detainer action against the defendant and asserts that a defendant did not deliver a declaration within the required 15-day period after service of a notice demanding payment of rent or other financial obligations. (Code Civ. Proc., § 1179.03(h).)

For information about legal resources that may be available and to learn about other protections that may be available to you under federal or local law, go to lawhelpca.org or <https://landlordtenant.dre.ca.gov/>.

 - The court will provide a notice of the time and place of the hearing to all plaintiffs and defendants.
 - At the hearing, you may explain why you did not deliver this to the landlord in the time required.
 - If the court finds that your failure to provide the declaration was due to mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, the court will dismiss the case against you.
- Written filings with the court must be provided in English. (Code Civ. Proc., §185 (a).)
 - If attaching a non-English-language declaration provided by the landlord, you should also attach an English-language version, either a copy that was given to you by the landlord or one from landlordtenant.dre.ca.gov/tenant/forms.html.
