Supporting Documentation

Utah law requires the Division of Motor Vehicle to collect an administrative fee prior to releasing any vehicle that was impounded pursuant to Utah Code 41-6a-527. The Tax Commission will refund the fee only under the following circumstances pursuant to Utah Code 41-6a-1406:

1. Proof of duplicate payment.
2. The vehicle owner filed a bona fide stolen vehicle report with a police agency and submits a copy of the police report with the refund request within 30 days of the date of the impound.
3. In the event of a DUI, the vehicle owner submits a letter from the Driver License Division stating that the operator's driver license will not be revoked or suspended as a result of this incident. The refund request must be submitted within 30 days of the date of the Driver License Division letter.

Complete this form and mail it along with all supporting documentation to Utah State Tax Commission, DMV - Accounting, PO Box 30412, Salt Lake City, UT 84130.

Upon receipt of your request and support documentation, the Tax Commission will process the refund request through the Department of Finance. The Department of Finance will send the refund check to the mailing address indicated above. Please allow 6 - 8 weeks for processing.
