In accordance with the Lead Renovation, Repair and Painting Rule ("RRP") as adopted by the Environmental Protection Agency ("the EPA"), effective April 22, 2010, if the improvements on the Property were built before 1978, contractor(s) engaged by Seller to renovate, repair or paint the Property must be certified by the EPA where such work will disturb more than six square feet of lead-based paint per room for interior projects, more than 20 square feet of lead-based paint for any exterior project, or includes window replacement or demolition ("Covered Work"). Before and during any Covered Work, contractor(s) must comply with all requirements of the RRP. A seller who personally performs any Covered Work on a rental property is required to be certified by the EPA prior to performing such Covered Work. No certification is required for a seller who personally performs Covered Work on a seller's principal residence. However, seller has the ultimate responsibility for the safety of seller's family or children while performing such Covered Work. For detailed information regarding the RRP, Seller should visit <http://www2.epa.gov/lead/renovation-repair-and-painting-program>. 17. TITLE: The title report and survey, if required, will be ordered pursuant to the terms in Settlement paragraph and, if not available on the Settlement Date, then Settlement may be delayed for up to 10 Business Days to obtain the title report and survey after which this Contract, at the option of Seller, may be terminated and the Deposit will be refunded in full to Buyer according to the terms of the DEPOSIT paragraph. Fee simple title to the Property, and everything that conveys with it, will be sold free of liens except for any loans assumed by Buyer. Title is to be good and marketable, and insurable by a licensed title insurance company with no additional risk premium. Title may be subject to commonly acceptable easements, covenants, conditions and restrictions of record, if any; otherwise, Buyer may declare this Contract void, unless the defects are of such character that they may be remedied within 30 Days beyond the Settlement Date. In case action is required to perfect the title, such action must be taken promptly by Seller at Seller's expense. The Broker is hereby expressly released from all liability for damages by reason of any defect in the title. Seller will convey the Property by Special Warranty Deed or by Personal Representative's Deed in the event Seller is a decedent's estate ("Deed"). Seller will sign such affidavits, lien waivers, tax certifications, and other documents as may be required by the Lender, title insurance company, Settlement Agent, or government authority, and authorizes the Settlement Agent to obtain pay-off or assumption information from any existing lenders. The manner of taking title may have significant legal and tax consequences. Buyer is advised to seek the appropriate professional advice concerning the manner of taking title. If Seller fails to do so and occupies the Property beyond Settlement, Seller will be a tenant at sufferance of Buyer and hereby expressly waives all notice to quit as provided by law. Buyer will have the right to proceed by any legal means available to obtain possession of the Property. Seller will pay any damages and costs incurred by Buyer including reasonable Legal Expenses.

19. FEES: Fees for the preparation of the Deed, that portion of the Settlement Agent's fee billed to Seller, costs of releasing existing encumbrances, Seller's legal fees and any other proper charges assessed to Seller will be paid by Seller. Fees for the title exam (except as otherwise provided), survey, recording (including those for any purchase money trusts) and that portion of the Settlement Agent's fee billed to Buyer, Buyer's legal fees and any other proper charges assessed to Buyer will be paid by Buyer. Fees to be charged will be reasonable and customary for the jurisdiction in which the Property is located. (Recording and Transfer Taxes are covered in the appropriate jurisdictional addendum.)

20. BROKER'S FEE: Seller irrevocably instructs the Settlement Agent to pay the Broker compensation ("Broker's Fee") at Settlement as set forth in the listing agreement and to disburse the Broker's Fee offered by the Listing Company to the Selling Company as set forth in the multiple listing service as of the Date of Offer, and any remaining amount of Broker's Fee to the Listing Company.

21. ADJUSTMENTS: Adjustments, including but not limited to, rents, taxes, water and sewer charges, front foot benefit and house connection charges, condominium/cooperative unit owners' association and/or homeowners' association regular periodic assessments (if any), are to be adjusted to the day of Settlement. Any heating or cooking fuels remaining in supply tank(s) at Settlement will become the property of Buyer. Taxes are to be adjusted according to the information provided by the collector of taxes except that recorded assessments for improvements completed prior to Settlement, whether assessments have been levied or not, will be paid by Seller. If a loan is assumed, interest will be adjusted to the Settlement Date and Buyer will reimburse Seller for any existing escrow accounts.

22. DISPUTES: In the event of any dispute between Seller and Broker and/or Buyer and Broker resulting in Broker or any agents, subagents or employees of Broker being made a party to such dispute, including but not limited to, any litigation, arbitration, or complaint and claim before the applicable Real Estate Commission, whether as defendant, cross-defendant, third-party defendant or respondent, Seller and Buyer, jointly and severally, agree to indemnify and hold Broker and any agents, subagents and employees of Broker harmless from any liability, loss, cost, damage or expense (including but not limited to, filing fees, service of process fees, transcript fees and Legal Expenses), resulting therefrom, provided that such dispute does not result in a judgment or decision against Broker, Broker's agents, subagents or employees for acting improperly.

23. LEGAL EXPENSES:

A. In any action or proceeding between Buyer and Seller based, in whole or in part, upon the performance or non-performance of the terms and conditions of this Contract, including but not limited to, breach of contract, negligence, misrepresentation or fraud, the prevailing party in such action or proceeding shall be entitled to receive reasonable Legal Expenses from the other party as determined by the Court or arbitrator.

B. In the event a dispute arises resulting in the Broker (as used in this paragraph to include any agent, licensee, or employee of the Broker) being made a party to any litigation by Buyer or by Seller, the parties agree that the party who brought the Broker into litigation shall indemnify the Broker for all of its reasonable Legal Expenses incurred, unless the litigation results in a judgment against the Broker.

24. PERFORMANCE: Delivery of the required funds and executed documents to the Settlement Agent will constitute sufficient tender of performance. Funds from this transaction at Settlement may be used to pay off any existing liens and encumbrances, including interest, as required by lender(s) or lienholders.

25. SELLER RESPONSIBILITY: Seller agrees to keep existing mortgages free of default through Settlement. All violations of requirements noted or issued by any governmental authority, or actions in any court on account thereof, against or affecting the Property at Settlement, shall be complied with by Seller and the Property conveyed free thereof.

26. DEFAULT: Buyer and Seller are required and agree to perform at Settlement in accordance with the terms of this Contract and acknowledge that failure to do so constitutes a breach hereof. If Buyer fails to complete Settlement for any reason other than Default by Seller, at the option of Seller, the Deposit may be forfeited as liquidated damages (not as a penalty) in which event Buyer will be relieved from further liability to Seller. If Seller does not elect to accept the Deposit as liquidated damages, the Deposit may not be the limit of Buyer's liability in the event of a Default. If the Deposit is forfeited, or if there is an award of damages by a court or a compromise agreement between Seller and Buyer, the Broker may accept and Seller agrees to pay the Broker one-half of the Deposit in lieu of the Broker's Fee, (provided Broker's share of any forfeited Deposit will not exceed the amount due under the listing agreement).

If Seller fails to perform or comply with any of the terms and conditions of this Contract or fails to complete Settlement for any reason other than Default by Buyer, Buyer will have the right to pursue all legal or equitable remedies, including specific performance and/or damages.

If either Seller or Buyer refuses to execute a release of Deposit (“Release”) when requested to do so in writing and a court finds that such party should have executed the Release, the party who so refused to execute the Release will pay the expenses, including without limitation, reasonable Legal Expenses, incurred by the other party in the litigation. Seller and Buyer agree that Escrow Agent will have no liability to any party on account of disbursement of the Deposit or on account of failure to disburse the Deposit, except in the event of the Escrow Agent’s gross negligence or willful misconduct. The parties further agree that the Escrow Agent will not be liable for the failure of any depository in which the Deposit is placed and that Seller and Buyer each will indemnify, defend and save harmless the Escrow Agent from any loss or expense arising out of the holding, disbursement or failure to disburse the Deposit, except in the case of the Escrow Agent’s gross negligence or willful misconduct.

If either Buyer or Seller is in Default, then in addition to all other damages, the defaulting party will immediately pay the Broker’s Fee in full, as well as the costs incurred for the title examination, Appraisal, and survey.

27. DISCLOSURES TO THE PARTIES: Buyer and Seller should carefully read this Contract to be sure that the terms accurately express their respective understanding as to their intentions and agreements. By signing this Contract, Buyer and Seller acknowledge that they have not relied on any representations made by the Brokers, or any agents, subagents or employees of the Brokers, except those representations expressly set forth in this Contract. Further, Brokers, their agents, subagents and employees do not assume any responsibility for the performance of this Contract by any or all parties hereto. The Broker can counsel on real estate matters, but if legal advice is desired by either party, such party is advised to seek legal counsel. Buyer and Seller are further advised to seek appropriate professional advice concerning the condition of the Property or tax and insurance matters. The following provisions disclose some matters which the parties may investigate further. These disclosures are not intended to create a contingency. Any contingency must be specified by adding appropriate terms to this Contract. The parties acknowledge the disclosures contained herein and that the Brokers, their agents, subagents and employees, make no representations nor assume any responsibility with respect to the following:

A. PROPERTY CONDITION Various inspection services and home warranty insurance programs are available. The Broker is not advising the parties as to certain other issues, including without limitation: condition of real or personal property, water quality and quantity (including but not limited to, lead and other contaminants); sewer or septic; public utilities; lot size and exact location; soil condition; flood hazard areas; possible restrictions of the use of the Property due to restrictive covenants, zoning, subdivision, or environmental laws, easements; airport or aircraft noise; planned land use, roads or highways; and construction materials and/or hazardous materials, including without limitation, flame-retardant treated plywood (FRT), radon, urea formaldehyde foam insulation (UFFI), mold, polybutylene pipes, synthetic stucco (EIFS), underground storage tanks, defective Chinese drywall, asbestos and lead-based paint. Information relating to these issues may be available from appropriate government authorities.

B. LEGAL REQUIREMENTS All contracts for the sale of real property must be in writing to be enforceable. Upon ratification and Delivery, this Contract becomes a legally binding agreement. Any changes to this Contract must be made in writing, agreed to by all parties to the Contract, and Delivered to all parties for such changes to be enforceable.

C. FINANCING Mortgage rates and associated charges vary with financial institutions and the marketplace. Buyer has the opportunity to select the lender and the right to negotiate terms and conditions of the financing subject to the terms of this Contract.

D. BROKER Buyer and Seller acknowledge that the Broker is being retained solely as a real estate agent and not as an attorney, tax advisor, lender, appraiser, surveyor, structural engineer, mold or air quality expert, home inspector or other professional service provider. The Broker may from time to time engage in the general insurance, title insurance, mortgage loan, real estate settlement, home warranty and other real estate-related businesses and services. Therefore, in addition to the Broker’s Fee specified herein, the Broker may receive compensation related to other services provided in the course of this transaction pursuant to the terms of a separate agreement/disclosure.

E. PROPERTY TAXES Your property tax bill could substantially increase following Settlement. For more information on property taxes, contact the appropriate taxing authority in the jurisdiction where the Property is located.

F. PROPERTY INSURANCE Obtaining property insurance is typically a requirement of the lender in order to secure financing. Insurance rates and availability are determined in part by the number and nature of claims and inquiries made on a property’s policy as well as the number and nature of claims made by a prospective buyer. Property insurance has become difficult to secure in some cases. Seller should consult an insurance professional regarding maintaining and/or terminating insurance coverage.

G. TITLE INSURANCE Buyer may, at Buyer's expense, purchase owner's title insurance. The coverage afforded by such title insurance would be governed by the terms and conditions thereof, and the premium for obtaining such title insurance coverage will be determined by the extent of its coverage. Buyer may purchase title insurance at either "standard" or "enhanced" coverage and rates. For purposes of owner's policy premium rate disclosure by Buyer's Lender(s), if any, Buyer and Seller require that enhanced rates be quoted by Buyer's Lender(s). Buyer understands that nothing herein obligates Buyer to obtain any owner's title insurance coverage at any time, including at Settlement, and that the availability of enhanced coverage is subject to underwriting criteria of the title insurer.

28. ASSIGNABILITY: This Contract may not be assigned without the written consent of Buyer and Seller. If Buyer and Seller agree in writing to an assignment of this Contract, the original parties to this Contract remain obligated hereunder until Settlement.

29. FOREIGN INVESTMENT TAXES – FIRPTA: Section 1445 of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 provides that a buyer of a residential real property located in the United States must withhold federal income taxes from the payment of the purchase price if (a) the purchase price exceeds Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) or the purchase price is less than or equal to Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000.00) and the property will not be owner occupied, and (b) seller is a foreign person for purposes of U.S. income taxation. A foreign person includes, but is not limited to, a non-resident alien, foreign corporation, foreign partnership, foreign trust or foreign estate (as those terms are defined by the Internal Revenue Code and applicable regulations). In the event Seller is a foreign person (as described above), the Seller will be subject to the withholding provisions of FIRPTA. If Seller is not a foreign person, Seller agrees to execute an affidavit to this effect at Settlement.
