Employer Supplementary Form

for employers who have offered a position to a person from overseas who is applying for a work visa

Information for employers

This form must be completed and signed by a person who has authority to make representations and enter into agreements on the employer's behalf. Please answer all questions. If any question does not apply please answer "N/A" for "not applicable". Complete this form if you are an employer who has offered a position to a person from overseas who is applying for a work visa or varying the conditions of a work visa.

This form must be used for:

- Essential Skills work visa applicants; and
- Work to Residence: Long Term Skill Shortage List (LTSSL) work visa applicants; and
- Post-study work visa (employer assisted) applicants; and
- Specific Purpose work visa applicants, where a job offer is required; and
- Variation of Condition work visa applicants

This form is not required for any other work visa category.

This form must be submitted by the person you have offered a position to with the Essential Skills Work Visa form (INZ 1266), the Work Visa Application (INZ 1015) form or the Application for a Variation of Conditions or Variation of Travel Conditions (INZ 1020) form.

Note: If you are an Accredited Employer, you do not have to complete this form to support a work visa holder applying to vary the conditions of their Work to Residence – Talent work visa.

Providing this information will help us to process the application, however we may need to contact you for more information.

Submit photocopies only. Do not submit original documents as they will not be returned to you. If we need to see an original document we will ask you to produce it at a later time.

Work entitlement

It is an offence under the Immigration Act 2009 to employ a person who is not entitled to work in New Zealand. One way for employers to avoid committing this offence is to check a person's entitlement to work through Immigration New Zealand's online VisaView system. For more information or to register please visit www.immigration.govt.nz/visaview. Disclosure of information through VisaView is authorised by legislation.

Supporting Essential Skills work visa applications

In most cases employers with vacancies for employment paid below the median wage must engage with Work and Income before supporting an Essential Skills work visa application. Work and Income will refer candidates who are suitable and available for the role (if there are any) and provide a Skills Match Report if you choose to support a work visa application.

You can find more details on our website at www.immigration.govt.nz/employ-migrants.

About the information you provide

Immigration New Zealand collects the information about you on this form to determine your request to recruit overseas workers. We may also use the information to contact you for research purposes or to advise you on immigration matters.

The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. Do not send your application to this address.

Collecting the information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not we are likely to decline your application.

Immigration New Zealand may also share the information you have provided with other government agencies that are entitled to it by law, or with other agencies (as you have agreed in the declaration).

You have the right to access the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary.

Section C Overseas recruitment based on non-availability of New Zealand residents

This section must be completed if the person you have offered employment to is applying under the Essential Skills work category unless:

- the occupation is on an Immigration New Zealand skill shortage list (either the Long Term, Immediate, or Construction and Infrastructure skill shortage list) and the person meets the qualification and/or work experience requirements of the list, or
- the person wishes to continue working in the role they currently hold, and they have been invited to apply or have applied under the Skilled Migrant Category based on this employment,
- the person is remaining in current and full time employment and holds one of the following:
 - a work visa of any type (including a Working Holiday visa), or
 - a student visa with conditions allowing unlimited work rights, or
 - a Critical Purpose visitor visa either granted as a critical health worker, or granted for more than six months as an 'other critical worker'.

You must answer the questions below and attach evidence to show that you have made genuine attempts to recruit New Zealand citizens or residence class visa holders for the position. We can make a faster visa decision if you provide satisfactory evidence of doing so now.

If your vacancy is for employment paid below the median wage, in most cases you must engage with Work and Income before supporting an Essential Skills work visa. Work and Income will refer candidates who are suitable and available for the role (if there are any) and give you a Skills Match Report if you choose to support a work visa. For details of exemptions from this requirement see the Essential Skills work visa requirements section of the Work Visa Guide (INZ1016).

C1 Have you made genuine attempts to recruit New Zealanders for the role offered?

No

C2 Have you made efforts as an employer to train New Zealanders to fill the positions available?

Yes Attach documents outlining the types of training provided and the outcome of that training.

No Provide a written statement outlining why you have not made efforts to train New Zealanders.

C3 Explain why the New Zealanders considered for this role were not suitable. Provide details such as how many New Zealanders were considered, why they couldn't perform the duties described in the job description and why they were not able to be trained.

Section D Declaration by employer

This section must be read and signed by a person who has authority to make representations and enter into agreements on the employer's behalf.

I understand the notes and questions in this form and I declare that the information given about my business is true and correct.

I understand that further information relating to business records, sets of accounts, financial statements and other records deemed necessary may be requested.

I understand that if I make any false statements, or provide any false or misleading information, or have changed or altered this form in any way, that I may be committing an offence under sections 342 and 348 of the Immigration Act 2009 and may be liable to prosecution.

I agree to inform Immigration New Zealand about any relevant changes to the circumstances of my business that occur after I lodge this form that may impact on current or prospective applicant's employment.

I agree to pay any Essential Skills work visa holder in my employment the remuneration required by their visa conditions.

I authorise Immigration New Zealand to:

- seek information concerning my compliance with New Zealand's immigration and employment laws from any records held by the Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment
- make any enquiries it deems necessary in respect of the documents or information provided in respect of this form
- share information provided about me or my business with other government agencies (including overseas agencies) to the extent necessary to make decisions.
