

Judge-Your-Neighbor Worksheet

Judge your neighbor • Write it down • Ask four questions • Turn it around

Fill in the blanks below, writing about someone (dead or alive) you haven't yet forgiven one hundred percent. Use short, simple sentences. Don't censor yourself-try to fully experience the anger or pain as if the situation were occurring right now. Take this opportunity to express your judgments on paper.

Now investigate each of the above statements using the four questions. Always give yourself time to let the deeper answers meet the guestions. Then turn each thought around. For the turnaround to statement 6, replace the words "I don't ever want to ..." with "I am willing to ..." and "I look forward to ..." Until you can look forward to all aspects of life without fear, your Work is not done.

The four questions

Example: Paul doesn't listen to me about his health.

- 1. Is it true? (Yes or no. If no, move to 3.)
- 2. Can you absolutely know that it's true? (Yes or no.)
- How do you react, what happens, when you believe that thought?
- 4. Who would you be without the thought?

Turn the thought around

- a) to the self. (I don't listen to myself about my health.)
- b) to the other. (I don't listen to Paul about his health.)
- c) to the opposite. (Paul does listen to me about his health.)

Then find at least three specific, genuine examples of how each turnaround is true for you in this situation.
