Head teacher's report on the pupil's ability, industry and conduct:

involved himself in reading beyond the examinable subjects and frequently joined debates in philosophy and anthropology in a neighbouring senior college. He combined his school work with being the top debater and an awesome talented rugby player. He also played table tennis and was awarded the top trophy in his last year in school. He was amicable and polite to his teachers and colleagues and would work with everyone at whichever role he was given.
