NOMINATIONS FOR THE ORDER OF THE LONG LEAF PINE

You are a committee that is being asked by the Governor of North Carolina to choose one of the following nominees to receive one of the highest honors given in North Carolina, the Order of the Long Leaf Pine. This award has been given in the past to Dale Earnhardt, Michael Jordan, Andy Griffith, Oprah Winfrey, and Jeff Gordon. The certificate reads as follows:

"Reposing special confidence in the integrity, learning and zeal of [honoree], I [the Governor of North Carolina] do by these presents confer The Order of the Long Leaf Pine with the rank of Ambassador Extraordinary, privileged to enjoy fully all rights granted to members of this exalted order, among which is the special privilege to propose the following North Carolina toast in select company anywhere in the free world:"

We are going to divide up and research the following individuals. Websites have been provided below to give you information about each individual. Read about your nominee(s), and then be prepared to recommend that person(s) to the committee. You may do so with a letter, poster, Glogster, or Powerpoint. Before you present, you will decide on the criteria you think are important in making the final selection, and how many points to give to each criterion on the Rating Sheet. As each person presents the recommendation, the committee should make notes on the Rating Sheet. Then, as a committee, you will agree on the final recommendation to the Governor, and write a letter of recommendation with your reasons given for our choice. Each of these nominees is Lebanese by heritage and lived in North Carolina at some point in his/her life.
