APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE PASS-THROUGH ENTITY INCOME TAX RETURN

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Purpose of Form Form 510E is used by a pass-through entity to request an extension of time to file the pass-through entity income tax return (Form 510).

General Requirements Maryland law provides for an extension of time to file, but in no case can an extension be granted for more than six months beyond the original due date. A request for extension of time to file will be granted automatically for six months for S corporations and three months for partnerships and limited liability companies if:

- 1) Form 510E is properly filed and submitted by the original due date (S corporation: 15th day of the 3rd month following close of the tax year or period. Partnerships and limited liability companies: 15th day of the 4th month following close of the tax year or period.);
- 2) full payment of any balance due is submitted with Form 510E; and
- 3) an application for extension of time has been filed with the Internal Revenue Service or an acceptable reason has been provided with Form 510E.

An additional three-month extension may be granted to a partnership or limited liability company for reasonable cause with the filing of an additional Form 510E.

A proper application for extension of time to file will not be acknowledged. If the extension request is denied, the pass-through entity will be notified.

Form 510E does not extend the time allowed a pass-through entity to pay the personal income tax for nonresident partners, shareholders or members. Maryland law provides for accrual of interest and imposition of penalty for failure to pay any tax when due.

When and Where to File File Form 510E by the 15th day of the 3rd month following the close of the taxable year or period if an S corporation; by the 15th day of the 4th month following the close of the taxable year or period if a partnership or limited liability company. The return must be filed with the Comptroller of the Treasury, Revenue Administration Division, Annapolis, Maryland 21411-0001.
