Form M-4868 Instructions

Who Should File This Form

This application is used by individuals to request an automatic six-month extension of time to file their Massachusetts income tax return. This form may also be used to extend the time to file your individual use tax if you elect to report use tax on your personal income tax return. This is the only application needed to request a six-month extension of time to file. The extension of time to file does not extend the due date for payment of any tax due. Extensions are granted only upon the timely filing of the extension with any required payment amount. Certain taxpayers are required to file an application for extension via DOR's website. See the section "Filing Your Extension Via the Web" on page 1 for more information. Determine your required payment, if any, by completing the worksheet on the front of this form.

Automatic Extension Granted if 100% Tax Due is Paid by Tax Return Due Date

If line 7 is "0" and you meet criteria set forth in TIR 06-21, you are no longer required to file Form M-4868. However, if you do choose to file Form M-4868 with "0" entered in line 7, you must do so electronically. See page 1 for more information.

Note: If line 7 is "0" or you are making a payment of $5,000 or more, Form M-4868 and any payment must be filed electronically, either through E-File or via the Web. If you are making a payment of less than $5,000, you also have the option of filing Form M-4868 electronically. See page 1 for more information.

When to File This Form

Form M-4868 is due on or before April 16, 2013, or on or before the original due date of the return for fiscal year filers. If the due date is a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, substitute the next regular workday.

Required Payment

This application must be accompanied by payment of any tax estimated to be due. The extension will be considered void if 80% of the total tax liability is not paid on or before the original due date of the return. Void extensions are subject to penalty and interest charges from the original due date.

Penalties and Interest

Any portion of tax not paid on or before the due date of your return is subject to a late payment penalty of 1% per month of the tax due, up to a maximum of 25%. Returns not filed on or before the due date are subject to a late file penalty of 1% per month of the tax due, up to a maximum of 25%. Interest will also be charged on any tax not paid on or before the original due date.

Filing Your Income Tax Return

Your income tax return may be filed at any time within the six-month extension period. When completing your return, enter the amount paid with this extension in the "amount paid with extension" line of the form you file.

Retain the top portion of this application for your records.

Note: You must detach Form M-4868 where indicated before mailing. Failure to do so may delay the processing of your extension.

If you and your spouse file a joint Form M-4868 but do not file a joint income tax return, the total automatic extension tax payment may be claimed on your separate return or the separate return of your spouse, or divided in any way. The Social Security number of both spouses must be entered on the separate returns.

If you and your spouse file a separate Form M-4868 and later elect to file a joint income tax return, enter on the extension paid line the sum of the amounts paid on the separate Forms M-4868. Be sure to enter the Social Security numbers of both spouses on your income tax return.

Termination of Extension

The Massachusetts Department of Revenue (DOR) may terminate an automatic extension at any time by mailing a notice of termination to the taxpayer(s) or to the person who requested the extension for the taxpayer(s). The notice shall be mailed at least ten days prior to the termination date designated in the notice.

Where to File

Mail your completed extension form with any payment due or a copy of your federal extension form to: Massachusetts Department of Revenue, PO Box 7070, Boston, MA 02204.

Write your Social Security number(s) on the lower left corner of your check. Make your check or money order payable to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.
