WARNING: Any person who knowingly makes a false statement or misrepresentation on this form or on any accompanying documents is subject to penalties that may include fines, imprisonment, or both, under the U.S. Criminal Code and 20 U.S.C. 1097.

SECTION 1: BORROWER IDENTIFICATION

Please enter or correct the following information.

SSN  [   ]-   [   ]-   [   ]
Name ___________________________________________
Address _________________________________________
City, State, Zip Code ______________________________
Telephone - Home (      ) __________________________
Telephone - Other (      ) __________________________
E-mail Address (Optional) __________________________

SECTION 2: INSTRUCTIONS AND INFORMATION

Before answering any questions, carefully read the entire form, including Sections 6, 7, and 9. Type or print using dark ink. If you need help completing this form, contact your loan holder.

Return the completed form and any required documentation to the address shown in Section 8.

You may be eligible to use the IBR plan to repay your FFELP loan(s) if you meet the eligibility requirements described in Section 7. An IBR plan calculator is available at studentaid.gov. The calculator evaluates your eligibility for the IBR plan and estimates your IBR plan payment amount. To use the calculator you will need to enter your eligible loan debt, income, family size, and state of residence. The calculator is for informational purposes only; your loan holder will make the official determination of your eligibility and payment amount based on your IBR Plan Request and other required documentation.

You must provide your loan holder with information about your income that will be used to determine your eligibility for the IBR plan and your IBR payment amount, as described in Section 7. If you have eligible loans with more than one loan holder, you must submit a separate IBR request to each holder of the loans you want to repay under the IBR plan. Your request for the IBR plan will apply to all of your eligible loans with the loan holder unless you notify your loan holder that you do not want to use the IBR plan for all of your loans. If you want to exclude a loan from this request, contact your loan holder for further instructions.

You must promptly submit to your loan holder this complete IBR Plan Request, and one of the following: IRS Form 4506-T, IRS Form 4506-T-EZ, or other documentation your loan holder may require (see Section 3). Note: The IRS will not accept IRS Form 4506-T or 4506-T-EZ if it is received by the IRS more than 120 days from the date you signed it.

SECTION 3: REQUIRED INFORMATION AND DOCUMENTATION

All borrowers – To request the IBR plan, you must provide each holder of the loans you wish to repay under the IBR plan with the following information and documentation:

1. Your family size (as defined in Section 6): __________ Note: If you do not enter your family size, your loan holder will assume a family size of one.

2. Either (a) or (b) as required by your loan holder, unless you check the box in #3 below:
   (a) A completed IRS Form 4506-T or 4506-T-EZ providing your consent for the IRS to disclose your AGI and other federal income tax return information to your loan holder. If required, your loan holder will include IRS Form 4506-T or 4506-T-EZ with this IBR plan request or will provide instructions for obtaining the IRS forms.
   (b) Other documentation of your AGI, as specified by your loan holder.

3. Check this box if you were not or are not required to file a federal income tax return for the most recently ended tax year because you did not meet IRS filing requirements. If you check this box, your loan holder will require you to provide alternative documentation of your income.

Married borrowers only – You must complete the following if (1) you file a joint federal income tax return with your spouse, and your spouse has loans that are eligible for repayment under the IBR plan (see Section 6) or (2) you and your spouse are joint borrowers of a Federal Consolidation Loan that you want to repay under the IBR plan.

Spouse Name (last, first, MI) __________________________ Spouse SSN  [   ]-   [   ]-   [   ]
Date of Birth (mm-dd-yyyy) __________________________

Check this box if you have a Federal Consolidation Loan that you borrowed jointly with your spouse, and you and your spouse want to repay that loan under the IBR plan. Both you and your spouse must sign below. Note: If you are no longer married to the co-borrower of your Federal Consolidation Loan, each of you must complete a separate IBR Plan Request form.

SECTION 4: ELIGIBLE FFELP LOANS WITH OTHER LOAN HOLDERS AND DIRECT LOANS

Information on your other loans (and, if applicable, your spouse's other loans) will be used to determine your eligibility for the IBR plan and your monthly payment amount. Check each box below that applies.

☐ Check this box only if (a) you have other loans with different holders that are eligible for the IBR plan (see Section 6) and you make payments on those loans to a different holder than the holder to which you submit this form, or (b) you and your spouse are requesting the IBR plan for a Federal Consolidation Loan that you borrowed jointly and your spouse has other loans with different holders that are eligible for the IBR plan, and makes payments on those loans to a different holder than the holder to which you submit this form.

☐ Check this box only if you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, and your spouse has loans that are eligible for repayment under the IBR plan (see Section 6). If you check this box, both you and your spouse must sign below. By signing, your spouse is authorizing the loan holder to access information about his or her federal student loans in the National Student Loan Data System.

SECTION 5: BORROWER REQUEST, UNDERSTANDINGS, AGREEMENT, AUTHORIZATION, AND CERTIFICATION

☐ I request to use the IBR plan to repay my eligible FFELP loans held by the holder to which I submit this form, except for any loans that I have requested be excluded from the IBR plan.

☐ I understand that: (1) If I am entering repayment on my loan(s) for the first time and request the IBR plan, but I do not provide my loan holder with this completed IBR request form and any other documentation required by my loan holder, I will be placed on the standard repayment plan. (2) If I am currently repaying my loan(s) under a different repayment plan and want to change to the IBR plan, my loan holder may grant me a forbearance for up to 60 days in order to collect and process documentation supporting my request for the IBR plan. I am not required to make loan payments during this period of forbearance, but interest will continue to accrue. Unpaid interest that accrues during this maximum 60-day forbearance period will not be capitalized (see Section 6). (3) If I am delinquent in making payments under my current repayment plan at the time I request the IBR plan, my loan holder may grant me a forbearance to cover any payments that are due before the time of my request, or that would be due before the time by the loan holder determines whether I have a partial financial hardship, if that determination takes my loan holder more than 60 days. Unpaid interest that accrues during this forbearance period may be capitalized.

☐ I authorize the school, the lender, the guarantor, the Department, and their respective agents and contractors to contact me regarding my loan(s), including repayment of my loan(s), at the current or any future number that I provide for my cellular telephone or other wireless device using automated telephone dialing equipment or artificial or prerecorded voice or text messages.

☐ I certify that all of the information I have provided on this form and in any accompanying documentation is true, complete, and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

Borrower Signature __________________________ Date (mm-dd-yyyy)
Spouse Signature (if required) __________________________ Date (mm-dd-yyyy)

Note: Spouse's signature is required if you checked the box in Section 3 and/or the box in Section 4, Item 2.
Important information about the IBR plan includes:

- Partial financial hardship is when the annual amount due on all of your eligible loans or, if you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, the annual amount due on all of your eligible loans and your spouse's eligible loans, exceeds 15% of the difference between your adjusted gross income (AGI), as shown on your most recently filed federal income tax return, and 150% of the annual poverty guideline amount for your family size and state of residence:

  The annual amount of payments due is calculated based on the greater of (1) the total amount owed on eligible loans at the time those loans initially entered repayment or (2) the total amount owed on eligible loans at the time you or, if applicable, your spouse requested the IBR plan. The annual amount of payments due is calculated using a standard repayment plan with a 10-year repayment period. The amount owed on eligible loans includes the amount owed on your eligible loans and, if you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, the amount owed on your spouse's eligible loans. If you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, your AGI includes your spouse's income.

- Eligible loans for the IBR plan are FFELP and Direct Loan Program loans other than: (1) a loan that is in default, (2) a Federal or Direct PLUS Loan made to a parent borrower, or (3) a Federal or Direct Consolidation Loan that renews a Federal or Direct PLUS Loan made to a parent borrower. Federal Perkins Loans, HEAL loans or other health education loans, and private education loans are not eligible for the IBR plan. To access information on all of your federal student loans, check the National Student Loan Data System at www.nslds.ed.gov.

- Family size includes you, your spouse, and your children (including unborn children who will be born during the year for which you certify your family size), if the children will receive more than half their support from you. It includes other people only if they live with you now, they receive more than half their support from you now, and they will continue to receive this support from you for the year that you certify your family size. Support includes money, gifts, loans, housing, food, clothes, car, medical and dental care, and payment of college costs.

- The holder of your FFELP loan(s) may be a lender or the U.S. Department of Education (the Department). The holder of Direct Loan Program loans is the Department. Your loan holder may use a servicer to handle billing and other communications related to your loan(s). If your loan holder uses a servicer, the term “holder” as used throughout this form may also refer to the servicer.

- Income-Based Repayment (IBR) is a repayment plan with monthly payments based on your eligible federal student loan debt, income, family size, and state of residence.

- Partial financial hardship is when the annual amount due on all of your eligible loans or, if you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, the annual amount due on all of your eligible loans and your spouse's eligible loans, exceeds 15% of the difference between your adjusted gross income (AGI), as shown on your most recently filed federal income tax return, and 150% of the annual poverty guideline amount for your family size and state of residence:

  The annual amount of payments due is calculated based on the greater of (1) the total amount owed on eligible loans at the time those loans initially entered repayment or (2) the total amount owed on eligible loans at the time you or, if applicable, your spouse requested the IBR plan. The annual amount of payments due is calculated using a standard repayment plan with a 10-year repayment period. The amount owed on eligible loans includes the amount owed on your eligible loans and, if you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, the amount owed on your spouse's eligible loans. If you are married and file a joint federal income tax return, your AGI includes your spouse's income.

- Poverty guideline amount is the figure for your state and family size from the poverty guidelines published annually by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). The HHS poverty guidelines are used for purposes such as determining eligibility for certain federal benefit programs. If you are not a resident of a state identified in the poverty guidelines, your poverty guideline amount is the amount used for the 48 contiguous states.

- The William D. Ford Federal Direct Loan (Direct Loan) Program includes Direct Subsidized Loans, Direct Unsubsidized Loans, Direct PLUS Loans, and Direct Consolidation Loans.

Section 7: Eligibility Criteria

Important information about the IBR plan includes:

- You must submit required information about your income to your loan holder for determination of your eligibility for the IBR plan and your IBR payment amount. You must provide your loan holder with Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 4506-T or 4506-T-EZ providing your consent for the disclosure of your AGI and other federal income tax return information by the IRS or other documentation of your AGI as required by your loan holder, which may be a copy of your most recently filed federal income tax return. Your loan holder may require you to provide alternative documentation of your income if (1) your AGI is not available from the IRS or your loan holder believes that your AGI does not reasonably reflect your current income; (2) you believe that your AGI does not reasonably reflect your current income; or (3) you have notified your loan holder that you were not required to file a federal income tax return for the most recently ended tax year. Use of alternative documentation of income to determine your IBR eligibility and payment amount is at the discretion of your loan holder.

- When you have a partial financial hardship, your monthly payment amount under the IBR plan will not exceed 15% of the amount by which your AGI exceeds 150% of the poverty guideline amount for your family size and state of residence, divided by 12:

  \[

- After entry into the IBR plan, you must annually certify your family size and provide income documentation for determination of whether you have a partial financial hardship. Your monthly payment amount for the IBR plan may be adjusted annually. It may be higher or lower, depending on the income documentation and family size information you provide each year. Your loan holder will notify you when you are required to provide this documentation.

- For any year you do not have a partial financial hardship, your payment amount will be the payment amount for your loan(s) under the standard repayment plan with a 10-year repayment period, based on the amount owed on your eligible loan(s) at the time you initially entered the IBR plan.

- In some circumstances your IBR plan monthly payment amount may not cover all interest that accrues, and your debt may increase. While you are in repayment under IBR, if your monthly payment amount does not cover all interest that accrues each month, the U.S. Department of Education will pay the unpaid interest on your subsidized Stafford loan(s) and on the subsidized portion of your Federal Consolidation Loan(s) for not more than the first 3 consecutive years after you initially enter the IBR plan. If you receive an economic hardship deferment during this 3-year period, any months of economic hardship deferment will not count toward the 3 consecutive years. The 3-year period will resume when the economic hardship deferment ends.

- Accrued interest is capitalized at the time you choose to leave the IBR plan or no longer have a partial financial hardship.

- If your loan(s) is not repaid in full after you have made the equivalent of 25 years of qualifying monthly payments and at least 25 years have elapsed, any remaining debt will be written off. If you receive an economic hardship deferment, any months of economic hardship deferment are considered the equivalent of qualifying payments. Months for which you receive any other type of deferment or months of forbearance are not counted as qualifying payments, and do not count toward the 25-year period.

Terms & Conditions

I authorize MOHELA to end the deferment and/or forbearance option which currently exists on my account in order to have the Income Based Repayment (IBR) plan processed. I understand that if I qualify for the IBR Plan, the removal of the deferment and/or forbearance option from my account will place me into immediate repayment. If I do not qualify for the IBR Plan, I understand that the deferment/forbearance option to which I had previously agreed will resume on my account for the remaining time granted on my initial request.

I understand that I am responsible for all accruing interest during my deferment and/or forbearance. If I do not pay the accrued interest, I understand that it will be added back to the principal balance of the loan(s) at the end of my deferment and/or forbearance period (capitalization). This may cause my new payment amount to be higher and/or may create a new payment due date. Additionally, capitalization of interest on my account may extend the repayment term of my loan(s).
