11. PRORATIONS: Taxes for the current year, interest, maintenance fees, assessments, dues and rents, if any, will be prorated through the Closing Date. If taxes for the current year vary from the amount prorated at closing, the parties shall adjust the prorations when tax statements for the current year are available. If a loan is assumed and the lender maintains an escrow account, the escrow account must be transferred to Buyer without any deficiency. Buyer shall reimburse Seller for the amount in the transferred account. Buyer shall pay the premium for a new insurance policy. If taxes are not paid at or prior to closing, Buyer will be obligated to pay taxes for the current year.

12. If Seller fails to do so due to factors beyond Seller’s control, Buyer may either (a) terminate this contract and the earnest money will be refunded to Buyer, (b) extend the time for performance and the Closing Date will be extended as necessary, or (c) accept the Property in its damaged condition and accept an assignment of insurance proceeds.

13. DEFAULT: If the Buyer fails to complete Settlement, at the option of the Seller, the Deposit may be forfeited as liquidated damages and not as a penalty, in which event the Buyer will be relieved from further liability to the Seller. If the Seller does not elect to accept the Deposit as liquidated damages, the Deposit may not be the limit of the Buyer’s liability in the event of a default. If the Seller fails to complete Settlement, the Buyer will have all legal or equitable remedies, including specific performance and/or damages. If either the Seller or Buyer refuses to execute a release of Deposit when requested to do so in writing and a court finds that they should have executed the agreement, the party who so refused to execute a release of Deposit will pay the expenses, including, without limitation, reasonable attorney’s fees, incurred by the other party in the litigation. The Seller and Buyer agree that no Escrow Agent will have any liability to any party on account of disbursement of the Deposit or on account of failure to disburse the Deposit, except only in the event of the Escrow Agent’s gross negligence or willful misconduct. The parties further agree that the Escrow Agent will not be liable for the failure of any depository in which the Deposit is placed and that the Seller and Buyer each will indemnify, defend and save harmless the Escrow Agent from any loss or expense arising out of the holding, disbursement or failure to disburse the Deposit, except in the case of the Escrow Agent’s gross negligence or willful misconduct. If either the Buyer or the Seller is in default, then in addition to all other damages, the defaulting party will immediately pay the costs (if any) incurred by the non-defaulting party for the title examination, appraisal, and survey.
14. ATTORNEY'S FEES: The prevailing party in any legal proceeding brought under or with respect to the transaction described in this contract is entitled to recover from the non-prevailing party all costs of such proceeding and reasonable attorney’s fees.

15. REPRESENTATIONS: Seller represents that as of the Closing Date (a) there will be no liens, assessments, or security interests against the Property which will not be satisfied out of the sales proceeds unless securing payment of any loans assumed by Buyer and (b) assumed loans will not be in default. If any representation in this contract is untrue on the Closing Date, this contract may be terminated by Buyer and the earnest money will be refunded to Buyer. All representations contained in this contract will survive closing.

16. FEDERAL TAX REQUIREMENT: If Seller is a "foreign person", as defined by applicable law, or if Seller fails to deliver an affidavit that Seller is not a "foreign person", then Buyer shall withhold from the sales proceeds an amount sufficient to comply with applicable tax law and deliver the same to the Internal Revenue Service together with appropriate tax forms. IRS regulations require filing written reports if cash in excess of specified amounts is received in the transaction.
