

National Youth Service (NYS)

APPLICATIONS FOR RECRUITMENT: NATIONAL SERVICE TRAINING

The National Youth Service (NYS) is a youth development and service institution, established by the National Youth Service Act, Act No. 6 of 2005, aiming at youth development through active involvement in national development programmes, efforts and activities; encouraging youth voluntarism; facilitating youth contribution to socio-economic development and poverty alleviation; and creating opportunities for skills development and career path.

To meet its mandate, NYS offers a three phase programme (National Service Training) Civic, Technical Vocational Education and Training (TVET) and Voluntary Service Training. NYS is inviting interested and unemployed youth to apply for enlistment into the first (1 phase) of National Service (Civic) Training NYS training. National Civic Training is mandatory for all wishing to proceed to Skills Training and Voluntary Service.

National Service training is a six (6) month training upon completion, recruits will either deployed for Voluntary Service into projects of National importance or enrolled for Technical Vocational Education Training (Skills Training) at Rietfontein Training Centre. The NYS TVET Programmes are registered with the Namibia Training Authority (NTA) and accredited by the Namibia Qualification Authority (NQA)
