- Instructions:
- 1) A conservator of the person may use this form to report to the Probate Court at least annually on the condition of the person under conservatorship. If there is no conservator of the person appointed, the conservator of the estate may use this form to file a report with the court one year after a conservator was appointed and every three years after the initial appointment as part of the statutory review of the conservatorship.
 - 2) Upon termination of a temporary conservatorship, the temporary conservator may also use this form to file a report with the court. For more information see C.G.S. sections 45a-654 (f), 45a-656 (c) and 45a-660 (c).
 - 3) The conservator should respond to every question. If a question does not apply, the conservator may indicate "Not Applicable" or "N/A."
 - 4) Type or print the form in ink.

Please respond to the following questions for the period since the last conservator's report was filed in court, or if this is the first report, since your appointment as conservator.

1. Indicate the number of your visits with the person under conservatorship:
2. Describe the changes, if any, to the mental, emotional or physical condition of the person under conservatorship.
3. Describe any significant actions you have taken regarding the person under conservatorship, if applicable.

4. List any significant problems that have arisen relating to the conservatorship, if applicable.

5. State whether the appointment of a conservator continues to be the least restrictive means of intervention for managing the needs of the person under conservatorship. If not, state what other means may be available.

6. Describe the efforts you have made to encourage the independence of the person under conservatorship.

Please complete this section if the report is completed in connection with a statutory review of the conservatorship.

In my opinion, the conservatorship should be continued modified terminated.
