You Must Report Certain The amount of your SSI check is based on the information you tell us. To continue getting the right payment amount, you must report certain changes that happen to you. You must tell us about changes within 10 days after the month they happen. If you do not report changes, we may have to take as much as $25, $50, or $100 out of future checks you receive. You must also report changes in income for your ineligible spouse or children who live with you, or your sponsor or sponsor's spouse if you are an alien. You must also report if any of these people buy or sell anything of value. Remember, changes could make your check bigger or smaller. A List of Most of the Changes You Must Report Is On The Next Page. How To Report Changes There are several ways you can report changes: • Call us, toll free, at 1-800-772-1213. • Call your local Social Security Office at the number above. • By mail or in person see the address above. Are You Working or Would You Like to work If you would like to work or if you are already working and would like to earn more, you should know about SSI rules known as work incentives. These rules can help you keep your Medicaid and help you keep getting some SSI even thoug you are working. You Like to work If you want to know more about these rules, call us, toll free, at 1-800-772-1213 or write or visit any Social Security office. The information you provide us on this form will be used to determine if you continue to be eligible for supplemental security income payments. Completion of this form is voluntary; however, failure to provide all or part of the information could prevent an accurate and timely decision on your continuing eligibility for benefits. We rarely use this information you supply for any purpose other than for determining continuing eligibility. However, we may use it for the administration and integrity of Social Security programs. We may also disclose information to another person or to another agency in accordance with approved routine uses, which include but are not limited to the following: 1. To enable a third party or an agency to assist Social Security in establishing rights to Social Security benefits and/or coverage; 2. To comply with Federal laws requiring the release of information from Social Security records (e.g., to the Government Accountability Office and Department of Veterans' Affairs); 3. To make determinations for eligibility in similar health and income maintenance programs at the Federal, State, and local level; and, 4. To facilitate statistical research, audit, or investigative activities necessary to assure the integrity and improvement of Social Security programs. We may also use the information you provide in computer matching programs. Matching programs compare our records with records kept by other Federal, State, or local government agencies.
