All legislative references on this sheet refer to the Income Tax Act (the Act.)

Do you have to file this return?

Form T1134-B, Information Return Relating to Controlled Foreign Affiliates, must be filed annually by:

- a taxpayer resident in Canada (other than a taxpayer all of whose taxable income for the year is exempt from tax under Part I of the Act) for which a non-resident corporation or a non-resident trust is a Controlled Foreign Affiliate (CFA) at any time in the year; and
- a partnership where:
 - the share of the income or loss of the partnership for the year of non-resident members is less than 90% of the income or loss of the partnership for the year, and
 - a non-resident corporation or non-resident trust would be a CFA of the partnership at any time in the year if the partnership were a person resident in Canada.

Note: A trust deemed under paragraph 94(1)(c) of the Act to be resident in Canada for purposes of Part I (i.e., a non-resident discretionary trust) is also deemed to be so resident for the purpose of filing this return.

A non-resident non-discretionary trust may be a CFA of a Canadian taxpayer (see paragraph 94(1)(d) of the Act).

If you are reporting for a foreign affiliate that is not a CFA, use Form T1134-A, Information Return Relating to Foreign Affiliates that are not Controlled Foreign Affiliates.

Do not file this return for a foreign affiliate that is "dormant" or "inactive" for the affiliate's taxation year ending in your taxation year. For purposes of completing Form T1134-B, a dormant or inactive foreign affiliate means, for a taxation year of the affiliate, one that:

- had gross receipts (including proceeds from the disposition of property) of less than $10,000 in the year; and
- at no time in the year had assets with a total fair market value of more than $100,000.

As an individual (other than a trust) you do not have to file Form T1134-B for the year in which you first become a resident of Canada.

Note: In determining whether a non-resident corporation or trust is a foreign affiliate of a taxpayer resident in Canada or of a partnership for purposes of these reporting requirements, the following rules apply:

- the reference to "any corporation" in paragraph (b) of the definition of "equity percentage" in subsection 95(4) of the Act should be read as if it were a reference to "any corporation other than a corporation resident in Canada";
- the definitions "direct equity percentage" and "equity percentage" in subsection 95(4) of the Act should be read as if a partnership were a person; and
- the definitions "controlled foreign affiliate" and "foreign affiliate" in subsection 95(1) of the Act should be read as if a partnership were a taxpayer resident in Canada.

Only the lowest tier subsidiary in a group of Canadian corporations under common control has to report for its CFA. However, if another corporation in the Canadian group has a direct equity percentage in the CFA, it too is required to report on that CFA.

If a CFA is owned indirectly by a partnership through a Canadian corporation(s), only the lowest tier Canadian corporation reports for the CFA. However, if a member of the partnership also has a direct equity percentage in the CFA, it too is required to report on the CFA.

Due dates for filing this return

The reporting requirements for foreign affiliates apply to taxation years that begin after 1995. Form T1134-B is due within 15 months after the end of your taxation year, except for taxation years that end in 1996, 1997 and 1998.

Where your taxation year ends in 1996, 1997 or 1998, Form T1134-B is required to be filed on or before the later of:

- June 30, 1998; or
- the day on or before which the return is otherwise required to be filed.

Foreign currency conversion

When converting amounts into Canadian dollars from a foreign currency, you should use the exchange rate in effect at the time of the transaction (e.g., the time the income was received.) If income is received throughout the year, we will accept an average rate for the year.

Where you are required to provide an amount at the beginning or at the end of the year, you may use the exchange rate in effect at the relevant time.
