

Protective Orders

What is a protective order?

It is a court order that protects you from someone who has been violent or threatened to be violent.

How can a protective order help me?

It can order the other person to:

- Not hurt you or threaten to hurt you
- Not contact you or go near you, your children, other family relatives, your home, where you work, or your children's schools
- Not have a gun or a license to carry a gun

The police can arrest the other person for violating any of these orders.

Can I get a protective order?

You can get a protective order if:

- Someone has hurt you, or threatened to hurt you, and
- You have a close relationship with that person (you were or are married, dating or living together, have a child together or are close relatives), and
- You are afraid that person may hurt you again.

How much does it cost?

It is free for you.

How do I ask for a protective order?

Fill out the forms in this kit:

- Application for Protective Order
- Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order
- Protective Order
- Respondent Information

Where do I file the forms?

After you fill out the forms, take the forms with 2 copies to the courthouse. File them in the county where you or the other person lives. But if you have a divorce or custody case pending against the other person, file the forms in that same county or the county where you live.

What if the other person and I live together or have children together?

The judge can make orders about who gets to use the house, apartment or car.

The judge can also make other orders, like child custody, child support, visitation, and spousal support.

Can I get protection right away?

The judge may give you a temporary order that protects you until your court hearing. This order is called a "Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order".

In some cases, the judge orders the other person to leave the home right away. If you want this, you should ask the judge. Be ready to testify at a hearing when you file your Application.

Do I have to go to court?

Yes. Even if you get a Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order, you must go to the next hearing. It should be in about 2 weeks. The judge will decide if you should have protection and for how long. If you do not go, the Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order may end.

Read Get Ready for Court in this kit. Or get it from the court clerk or from:

www.texaslawhelp.org/protectiveorderkit

How will the other person know about the protective order?

You must have the other person "served" before the court hearing. This means someone—not you—will serve the other person a copy of your application for a protective order.

The clerk can arrange for law enforcement to serve the other person the court papers for FREE (for you).

Need help?

There is an instruction sheet for each form. But, if you need more help, contact:

Get Ready for Court

Don't miss your hearing!

If you miss it, your Temporary Ex Parte Protective Order may end and you will have to start from the beginning.

Get ready.

- Fill out a Protective Order before you go to court and bring it with you.
- Bring any evidence you have, like photographs, medical records, torn clothing. Also bring witnesses who know about the violence, like a neighbor, relative or police. The judge may ask them to testify.
- Bring proof of your and the other person's income and expenses, like bills, paycheck stubs, bank accounts, tax returns.
- If the Proof of Service was returned to you, file it with the clerk and bring a copy to court.

Get there 30 minutes early.

- Find the courtroom.
- When the courtroom opens, go in and tell the clerk or officer that you are present.
- Watch the other cases so you will know what to do.
- When your name is called, go to the front of the courtroom.

What if I don't speak English?

When you file your papers, tell the clerk you will need an interpreter.

If a court interpreter is not available, bring someone to interpret for you. Do not ask a child, a protected person, or a witness to interpret for you.

What if I am deaf?

When you file your papers, ask for an interpreter or other accommodation.

What if I need child support or visitation orders?

Call the Family Violence Legal Line before you go to court: 800-374-HOPE

What if I am afraid?

If you don't feel safe, call your local family crisis center or the National Domestic Violence Hotline: 800-799-SAFE

Practice what you want to say.

Make a list of the orders you want and practice saying them. Do not take more than 3 minutes to say what you want.

If you get nervous at the hearing, just read from your list. Use that list to see if the judge has made every order you asked for.

The judge may ask questions.

The other person or his or her lawyer may also ask you questions. Tell the truth. Speak slowly. Give complete answers.

If you don't understand, say, "I don't understand the question."

Speak only to the judge unless it is your turn to ask questions. When people are talking to the judge, wait for them to finish. Then you can ask questions about what they said.

What happens after the hearing?

If the judge agrees you need protection, the judge will sign your Protective Order.

Take your signed order to the court clerk. Ask for copies of your order (or make extra copies) and keep one with you at all times.

Give copies of your order to your children's day care, babysitter, or school. If the other person violates the order, call the police and show them your order.

Need help?

If you are in danger, call the police: 911

Or call Family Violence Legal Line:
800-374-HOPE

Or go to:
