Re: Notice to Exercise Court-Ordered Possession and Access (Visitation)

Dear [Custodial Parent]:

I plan to see our [children / child], according	to the court-ordered possession and access (visitation) schedule, as written in the r	most recent court order which was signed by the judge in our case in Cause No	(cause number).

I will be at

□[your residence at 6:00 pm]

OR

□[the school where our [children /child] is enrolled, when school is dismissed]

OR

 \square [Other fill in the time and place where your visitation is ordered to take place.]

on [the date designated in the court order for you to take possession] to exercise my rights to see our [children / child].

You should have our [children / child] ready for my visitation as provided for in the court order.

I will return our [children / child] to you as required by the court order.

I intend to continue exercising my possession and access (visitation) rights according to the court ordered schedule from now on.

Interfering with my court-ordered access and visitation rights could result in a contempt action being filed against you. Failure to pay child support is not a justification or defense to a charge of contempt for interference with court-ordered visitation rights. If a court finds you in contempt for denying me court-ordered access to our [children / child] the court may sentence you to jail time, and order you to pay a fine, attorney's fees and court costs. It would be best for everyone, especially our [children / child], to avoid such litigation.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
[Your Address]
[Your Telephone]

WHAT COUNTS AS A DENIAL OF VISITATION???

To enforce your visitation order and ask the court to hold the other parent in contempt, you must follow very specific rules when you try to exercise your visitation.

You are not technically denied visitation unless you actually appear in person at the pick-up location listed in your court order, even if the other parent has already told you that she will not be there or that she will not be giving you your child.

By not producing the child at the pick-up location at a certain date and time, the other parent is violating the court order. However, that parent cannot be required to testify against herself in court, so you have to be able to testify that you were there and she was not.

Step 1: Look at your court order, or at your Visitation Calendar if one has been prepared for you. Find the next exact date and time that you are supposed to pick up your child.

Step 2: Arrive at the pick-up location at the exact date and time you are supposed to be there. Give yourself plenty of time to get there. If you are early, wait a few minutes.

Step 3: Knock on the door. Wait. Knock on the door again. You must give some indication that you are there and are ready to pick up your child.

Step 4: Try to obtain evidence that you were at the right location at the right date and time. You can take a witness with you to observe what happened. You can go to a nearby convenience store or fast food restaurant and buy a drink or a pack of gum, and keep the receipt showing you were in the area at a certain date and time. Some police departments may be willing to file a report for you.

Step 5: Immediately write down what happened in your visitation journal. Write down the date, time, and place where you tried to pick up your child. If you have a witness, write down his or her name. If you have a receipt or other evidence, keep it safe.

Court at a Glance, Enforcement Kit

There are basically 7 steps in enforcement cases.

Step 1: Do your Homework.

Step 2: File your Motion, and set your hearing

Step 3: Ask the Judge to sign the Order to Appear

Tell the other party what you want. (Process server or Post Office does this for you.)

Step 5: Prepare for Hearing

More homework.

Ask the judge for what you want, and explain why you should get it.

Step 6: Decision

- The Judge decides whether or not you should get what you asked for.
- You give the judge an Order to sign.
- The order needs to say exactly what the judge decided.

Step 1: Do your Homework

For Step One, you'll need the following:

- Civil Case Information Sheet (you'll get this from the District Clerk's office.)
- Motion for Enforcement of Visitation Order

1. Civil Case Information Sheet (get this when you are at the District Clerk's Office.)

- Complete it.
- Make a copy for your records. (The District Clerk will keep the original.)

2. Motion for Enforcement of Possession or Access

- Read through the Motion for Enforcement of Visitation Order and Order to Appear very carefully. Fill in your case information in the blank spaces. Check only those boxes that apply in your case. If you're not sure what to put in the blanks, talk to a lawyer.
- Sign the last page of the Motion for Enforcement of Possession or Access, in front of a notary.
- Make a copy for yourself and for every party in your case (The District Clerk will keep the original.)

3. Filing Fee

- Be prepared to pay a filing fee to the clerk when you file your papers.
- Call the District Clerk to find out how much you'll have to pay.
- If you can't afford to pay, you can file an Affidavit of Inability to Pay Costs, which asks the court to waive the filing fees.
- You can get this form from the this website's (www.TexasLawHelp.org) alphabetical list of forms

4. Learn how to set the hearing, and have the judge sign your Order to Appear Call the judge's court coordinator, (name), at (phone). Explain that you're filing a Motion to Enforce, and you need know: 1. What the procedure is to get the judge to sign the Order to Appear, and 2. What the procedure is to set the motion for a hearing. Write the instructions down here:

STEPS 2 - 4 will be completed the same day and at the courthouse

Step 2: File your Motion, and set your hearing

For Step Two, you'll need the following:

- Civil Case Information Sheet (get this from the District Clerk's Office)
- Motion for Enforcement of Visitation Order
- A check or money order for your filing fee (or the Affidavit of Inability to Pay Costs)
 - 1. File your papers with the District Clerk's Office in the county where you got the order that you're trying to enforce.
 - Take your documents (and your copies) to the District Clerk's Office.
 - Tell the clerk you're there to file a Motion to Enforce, and hand the clerk all of your documents. (Place the original on top, and the copies of each document behind the original.)
 - The clerk will "file stamp" your papers, noting the date when you filed your Motion.
 - The clerk will give you your copies, but will keep the original for the court's file.
 - Make sure to keep a copy of everything for yourself.

2. Set the Hearing

- Follow the Court Coordinator's instructions to set a hearing to have your motion heard. (You should have written them in Step One: Do your Homework.)
- Be sure to set your case at least 20 days from the date you file your motion. This will give you enough time to give the other parties legal notice. The parties must have at least 10 days' notice for a contempt hearing.

I ask the Court to hold the Respondent in contempt, and to jail, and fine the Respondent for each violation listed above.

I believe that, based on the Respondent's behavior, the Respondent will continue to disobey the court order. I ask the Court to hold Respondent in contempt, and to jail and fine Respondent for each additional failure to comply with the court order from the date of this filing to the date of the hearing on this motion.

In the event that the Court decides not to jail the Respondent, or the Court orders a partial commitment for the Respondent, I ask the Court to place Respondent on community supervision for five years on release from jail or suspension of commitment.

☐ CONTEMPT BASED ON THE FAILURE TO DISCLOSE A RESIDENTIAL ADDRESS

(Check this box, and complete the following section, if the Respondent was court ordered to notify you of changes in his/her address, but has refused to do so.)

The court orders, attached as Exhibit A, state that "EACH PERSON WHO IS A PARTY TO THIS ORDER IS ORDERED TO NOTIFY EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY OF ANY CHANGE IN THE PARTY'S CURRENT RESIDENCE ADDRESS, MAILING ADDRESS, HOME EMPLOYER, TELEPHONE NUMBER, NAME OF ADDRESS OF EMPLOYMENT, DRIVER'S LICENSE NUMBER, AND WORK TELEPHONE NUMBER. THE PARTY IS ORDERED TO GIVE NOTICE OF AN INTENDED CHANGE IN ANY OF THE REQUIRED INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY ON OR BEFORE THE 60TH DAY BEFORE THE INTENDED CHANGE. IF THE PARTY DOES NOT KNOW OR COULD NOT HAVE KNOWN OF THE CHANGE IN SUFFICIENT TIME TO PROVIDE THE 60-DAY NOTICE, THE PARTY IS ORDERED TO GIVE NOTICE OF THE CHANGE ON OR BEFORE THE FIFTH DAY AFTER THE DATE THAT THE PARTY KNOWS OF THE CHANGE

THE DUTY TO FURNISH THIS INFORMATION TO EACH OTHER, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY CONTINUES AS LONG AS ANY PERSON, BY VIRTUE OF THIS ORDER, IS UNDER AN OBLIGATION TO PAY CHILD SUPPORT OR ENTITLED TO POSSESSION OF OR ACCESS TO A CHILD.

FAILURE BY A PARTY TO OBEY THE ORDER OF THIS COURT TO PROVIDE EACH OTHER PARTY, THE COURT, AND THE STATE CASE REGISTRY WITH THE CHANGE IN THE REQUIRED INFORMATION MAY RESULT IN FURTHER LITIGATION TO ENFORCE THE ORDER, INCLUDING CONTEMPT OF COURT. A FINDING OF CONTEMPT MAY BE PUNISHED BY CONFINEMENT IN JAIL FOR UP TO SIX MONTHS, A FINE OR UP TO $500 FOR EACH VIOLATION, AND A MONEY JUDGMENT FOR PAYMENT OF ATTORNEY'S FEES AND COURT COSTS."

As of today, Respondent has failed and refused to comply with the order and has willfully disobeyed the order of the Court by failing to notify the court and me of the changes in residence address and phone number, and failing to surrender the minor child/ren to me on the above described dates.

I have been unable to exercise my rights of possession because I do not know where to pick up or return the child.

I ask the Court to hold Respondent in contempt, and to jail and fine Respondent for each violation alleged above. Further, I believe, based on the Respondent's behavior, that Respondent will continue to disobey the order. I ask the Court to hold Respondent in contempt, and to jail and fine Respondent for each failure to comply with the court order from the date of this filing to the date of the hearing on the motion.

I ask that the Respondent be confined in the county jail until Respondent complies with the Court order. If the Court decides not to jail the Respondent, I ask the Court to place Respondent on community supervision for five years on release from jail or suspension of commitment.

4. SETTLEMENT ATTEMPTS (Check all that apply.)
I have tried to resolve this matter without court intervention.
□ I acquired Respondent's present residence address, and sent a letter to Respondent asking Respondent to contact me about this situation, but w were unable to reach an agreement.
□ I attempted to settle this case in mediation.

5. BOND FOR CONFORMANCE

I ask the Court to order a bond to secure Respondent's compliance with the Court's order granting possession of or access to the child/ren.

6. MAKE UP VISITS

I ask the court to order additional time when I can have access or possession of the child/ren to compensate for those periods denied by Respondent.

7. CLARIFICATION

I ask that, if the court finds that any part of the order I am trying to enforce is not specific enough to be enforced by contempt, the Court enter a clarifying order that clearly specifies the duties imposed on Respondent, giving Respondent a reasonable time within which to comply.

8. PRAYER

I ask that Respondent be held in contempt and punished; that if the court decides not to jail Respondent, that the Court order Respondent to participate in a program of community supervision, that the Court order Respondent to pay the costs of court to the Clerk of the Court; that the Court order a bond or security for Respondent's future compliance with the Court's orders; that the Court clarify any part of its prior order found not specific enough to be enforced by contempt; that the Court enter such further orders as it deems just, equitable, and appropriate for the purpose of facilitating compliance with the Court's visitation and possession orders, that the Court enter such further orders as it finds are in the child/ren's best interests, that the Court enter such further orders as it deems necessary to transition the parties back to the previously orders possession and access schedule; and for attorney's fees, expenses, costs, and interest and further relief as authorized by law.

Step 4: Give Legal Notice

Tell the other party what you want.

For Step Four, you will need the following:

- Copies of all of the documents you have filed
- Order to Appear, signed by the judge

You must give legal notice to all of the parties in your case. If you don't know who the parties are in your case, you should talk to a lawyer.

- 1. Go back to the District Clerk's Office
 - Now that the judge has signed your Order to Appear, you need to file it in the District Clerk's office.
 - Tell the clerk you're there to file the Order to Appear, and hand the clerk the original and copies. (Place the original on top, and the copies of the document behind the original.)
 - The clerk will "file stamp" your papers, noting the date when you filed the Order to Appear.
 - The clerk will give you your copies, but will keep the original for the court's file.
 - Make sure to keep a copy of everything for yourself.
 - Tell the clerk you want to have a constable serve the Order to Appear and Motion for Enforcement of Possession or Access (with Exhibits) on the parties in your case.
 - Make sure the clerk will process the citation, and give it to the constable to serve the other party. If not, you'll need to give the citation to the constable to serve the other party. Ask the clerk how to do that.
 - The constable will file a Return of Citation to show the court the party was served.
 The Return of Citation has to be in the court file for at least 10 days before you have a hearing.

Step 5: Prepare for Hearing

More homework.

For Step Five, you will need the following:

• Papers for Step 7: Decision

1. Prepare for the Hearing

- Talk to your witnesses. Prepare questions for them, or have them prepare a statement to tell the judge.
- Review the documentation that shows the judge your visitation has been denied.
- Review the local rules for your county. Ask the clerk if your county has any special local rules, and where you can find them.
- Review your papers for Step 5: Decision. Make sure they are correct.

- Describe the pattern: (These denials of my court ordered visitation began on or around --- date and continued until the present. Or My Christmas visitation is denied every year...)
 The other parent has shown a pattern of being unreasonable with regard to my visitation:

STEPS YOU HAVE TAKEN TO RESOLVE DISPUTE BEFORE FILING ENFORCEMENT (These issues may or may not apply in your case. Make only those statements that apply to your case.)

- 1. I tried to resolve these visitation problems with the other parent before I filed this motion to enforce my visitation.
- 2. I tried to discuss these issues with the other parent. I sent letters to the other parent. I asked the other parent to attend mediation.
- 3. (Explain what happened when you tried to resolve the problems before coming to court.)
- 4. Have you taken any parent education classes to help you resolve these issues with the other parent?
 Do you feel like you benefitted from taking these classes?

Do you believe the other parent would benefit from taking these classes?

- 2. I am asking the Court to hold _____ (the other parent) in contempt for each denial.
- 3. I am asking the court to hold the other parent in contempt for each failure to notify me of her/his change in address.
- 4. I am asking the court to assess appropriate jail sentences for each criminal contempt violation. I ask that the jail sentences run concurrently, with a max. sentence not to exceed 18 months in jail.
- 5. But I am asking the court to suspend the other parent's sentence, and order the other parent to:
- Strictly and fully comply with the visitation order
- Surrender the child/ren for court-ordered make-up visits
- Post a reasonable bond
- Attend a Cooperative Parenting Program, and/or counseling
- Be placed on community supervision and monitor her/his compliance with the terms of the court order

Step 6: Hearing

Ask the judge for what you want, and explain why you should get it.

For Step Four, you need the following:

• Paperwork for Step Seven: Decision

- 1. Go to the courthouse
 - Arrive early.
 - Ask the District Clerk if you need to pull your case file to take to the docket, or does the judge already have it for your hearing.
- 2. Go to the courtroom.
 - Let the clerk (seated next to the judge's bench) know you have arrived for your hearing. Ask the clerk if he or she needs any of your papers, or if the judge prefers for you to give your papers to the judge.
- 3. Sit down and wait for the judge to call your case.
 - Sometimes the judge calls roll. When he calls your case (by your name or your Cause Number), stand up, and tell the judge you are the Petitioner, and how much time you think your case will take. Then, sit down, and wait to be called again.
 - If he isn't calling roll, then stand before his bench when you are called.
 - The judge will swear you in, and may ask you to "proceed" with your testimony, or may ask you questions.
 - Answer the judge truthfully, courteously, and respectfully.
 - The judge needs to know how the other party violated the court order. Be sure to stick to the facts. Be respectful of the other party. Be businesslike.
 - If you have witnesses to call or evidence to present, you will do so at this time. (After you call each witness, the other party can ask questions of them.)
 - The other party may call his or her witnesses, and you can ask questions of them.

Step 7: Decision

For Step Seven, you need the following:

- Order on Motion for Enforcement of Possession or Access
- Capias
- The Judge decides whether or not you should get what you asked for.
- You give the judge an Order to sign.
- The order needs to say exactly what the judge decided.
 - 1. After the judge has finished hearing your testimony and reviewing your papers, she will make a decision in your case.
 - 2. When the judge makes the decision (ruling) make sure you write down everything the judge says. You will need to fill in the Order on Motion for Enforcement of Visitation Order based on what the judge says.
 - 3. If the other party was served with your motion and the Order to Appear, but did not appear at the hearing, you can ask the judge to sign a Capias. The Capias, orders law enforcement to arrest the other party for failing to come to court, as ordered. Once the party is arrested, you can reset your hearing on the Motion for Enforcement, Contempt, and law enforcement will bring the party in for the hearing.
 - 4. If the other party appears at your hearing, you do NOT need the capias, throw it away, and complete the Order on Motion for Enforcement of Visitation Order.
