INTRODUCTION

Dear Wayne County Boot Camp (WCBC) Visitor:

This handbook has been prepared to provide needed information to visitors of WCBC. The enclosed information will prove to be extremely helpful by clarifying some basic details about the institution and its various rules and regulations.

Although not every question or concern can be addressed, this handbook should cover most areas of concern to visitors, and the rules and regulations that apply to visitation. All visitors will be expected to comply with all rules and regulations governing visitation so that each visit may be beneficial for everyone.

Visitation is an important part of the life of all inmates at WCBC. We hope that our visitation program will encourage and preserve family interaction.

Sincerely,

Wayne H. Brandon, Warden

OVERVIEW : Wayne County Boot Camp

In 1989, the Wayne County Boot Camp (WCBC) was reorganized as a Special Alternative Incarceration Unit Program, or "Boot Camp." It is a highly disciplined, military-style training program combined with various treatment programs. Eligible offenders are under 35 years of age and convicted of non-violent crimes with sentences of six years or less.

Military training consists of drill and ceremony, physical training, and respect for authority. Inmates are involved in support jobs at the facility and also provide labor for many community service projects. Inmates participate in the boot camp program for 90 to 120 days.

In February 1993, the mission of the boot camp was modified to include 50 beds for geriatric inmates, thereby reducing the boot camp program space to 100. Geriatric inmates must be 55 years of age or older and able to participate in a work program, within 10 years of their release eligibility date, and must be minimum direct or minimum trusty custody level. They will generally be provided with access to the same programs as other TDOC inmates and may also provide labor for community service projects. WCBC also houses a number of technical violators. In 1997, a 300 bed minimum-security annex was opened to house technical probation and parole violators who were temporarily housed at Tennessee Correctional Work Center and other minimum-security inmates. Total occupant capacity is currently 450 inmates. In June 2007, the annex was revamped to a Parole Technical Violator Diversion Program (PTVDP). Offenders in this program are issued a parole grant with a determinate release date conditional upon successful completion.

Wayne County Boot Camp is located in Clifton, Tennessee, approximately 100 miles southwest of Nashville and 125 miles southeast of Memphis. The best major route to Clifton is Interstate 40 to exit 126, highway 69 south, which is approximately 40 miles from the facility. It is five and a half miles north of highway 64, on highway 114, between Savannah and Waynesboro, Tennessee.
